Class Of '88 Moves On

363 Andover High Seniors Graduate

By Julie M. Barry

Families and friends filled the stands at the Eugene V. Lovely Field Tuesday to see 363 Andover High School seniors get their diplomas.

That main event was enhanced by some other traditional activities, such as musical performances by the school chorus and band, a speech from a graduating A Better Chance senior, a student essay and the presentation of a flag from the American Field Service student's home country, which is Argentina this year.

Guest speakers are also chosen every year. This year, Andover resident Richard Santagati was featured.

Santagati of Farmland Circle, a graduate of Central Catholic High School, Merrimack College and Massachusetts Institute of Technology, is chief executive officer at a national law firm, Gaston and Snow. He is also the father of one of this year's graduates, Susan Elizabeth Santagati.

In going out to the world, he stressed dreaming, exploring new horizons, discovering yourself and using courage to grow.

The students should be forming dreams of their own at this time in their lives, he said. "Because the future of this great country lies in your dreams."

Graduation is also a time to explore new horizons. "And much of this exploration will be within yourself—uncovering new areas of interests, finding hidden talents, tapping resources you never knew you had," he said.

"Growth will always take courage...You can't have one without the other," he said. "Indeed, it has been said, that growing up is one of the most courageous acts that any of us ever makes."

In his concluding remarks, Santagati said "Today marks a giant step into this world. It is a much bigger leap than any you have made before. Because from this point forward you will begin in earnest to determine the direction of your life. You will be in the driver's seat, charting the course you want to take, toward the dreams of your choice."

"The possibilities you will uncover, and the discoveries you will make about yourself and the world around you, will, I hope, surpass all your dreams."

"Push off from this shore, then, with great confidence. For the sea is calm. The sky is clear. The wind is with you. Our love guides you. And, your dreams are waiting in the distance."

The class of 1988 should have no

Glass Recycling To Resume

Glass recycling will resume June 18, the third Saturday of the month, in the parking lot next to the Town Offices Building on Bartlet St. Andover Recycling apologizes for the lack of a place to dispose of glass on Clow Town weekend. Changing parking lots seems to confuse everyone. The container will be there at 9 a.m. and larger than usual donations are expected. The town will also now start to recover brown glass. Barrels for brown glass will be on hand to see what the volume is.

Program Booklets In Mail

Residents should be looking in their mailboxes for the Department of Community Services' new, larger-sized Summer Program booklet. Registration will be held Monday, June 13, at the Doherty Junior High Auditorium (enter across from Central Park) from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. Classes, playground and KAMP programs begin Monday, June 27; Poms Pond will open Saturday, June 25.

School Meeting On Cable

Monday's meeting on the collaborative school issue, sponsored by the League of Women Voters, was filmed on video and will be screened in Andover on the local cable channel Thursday, June 9, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., next Tuesday from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. and next Thursday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m.

Members of the education committee of the local league made presentations to provide the most recent information about the collaborative school, which is up for vote at a Special Town Meeting June 20. The purpose was to update individual league members and other interested persons on changes in the collaborative school agreement, on the status of some of the issues and answers to some of their questions.

Parking Spaces Approved

The Planning Board recently approved a request from the Four Tech Center to construct an additional 100 parking spaces at their Andover facility.

Owned by the Prudential Insurance Co., the office building, located at River and Shattuck roads, was originally approved for 428 parking spots when it was built in 1984. The planning board allowed less spaces to be put in when the company came before them, explaining that they preferred to use the land for open green space.

Currently leased by the Digital Equipment Co., the office building can now use the extra parking spots and Prudential asked for the original 42 spaces that were waived four years ago, plus an additional 58.

The board approved the application unanimously without needing to discuss the request with the Prudential representative present at the meeting.

Town planning staff told the board that traffic impact from the extra 58 cars would be minimal. The only condition town planners recommended was a ban on the hauling of dirt from the site during peak traffic hours from 7 to 8:30 a.m. and 3 to 4:30 p.m.

The Planning Board agreed to approve the application with the earth removal restriction in place.

The parking spaces will be built in the southeastern corner of the lot, adjacent to I-93. Approximately 8,000 cubic yards of earth will be removed, Prudential estimates.

Honored For Achievement

The United States Achievement Academy announced that Bradford Wright has been named a United States National Collegiate Award winner in communication arts. The academy recognizes less than 10 percent of all American college students.

Wright, who attends Dean Junior College, was nominated for this national award by Michael C. Keith, author/professor at the school. He will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Collegiate Yearbook, published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in America's history. Certainly United States Achievement Academy award winners should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, executive director of the United States Achievement Academy. The academy selects winners upon the exclusive recommendation of professors, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the standards of selection set forth by the academy. The criteria for selection are academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a professor or director.

Wright is the son of Harold and Martha Wright of Andover and the grandson of Doris Godin of Andover and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sweetser of Nashua, N.H.

Piano Students Audition

Piano students of Kathleen Benson, Linda Shen and June Persing participated in the annual National Piano Playing Auditions at the University of Lowell June 1-7. The auditions, sponsored by the National Guild of Piano Teachers, a division of the American College of Musicians, give students a yearly opportunity to establish and work toward definite goals through non-competitive adjudication.

Each student prepared a program of four to 15 pieces, including musicianship skills. Students are evaluated in individual merit in accuracy, continuity, phrasing, pedaling, dynamics, rhythm, tempo, tone, interpretation, style and technique. Each student receives an evaluation with constructive comments from the adjudicator, a certificate and pin entitling the student to membership in the National Fraternity of Student Musicians.

Carleen Graff, associate professor of music at Plymouth State College, Plymouth, N.H., was the adjudicator selected by the National Guild this year. She is an active adjudicator, clinician and recitalist. In 1985 she became one of only six educators in New England to be certified as a master teacher by the Music Teachers National Association.

Band Announces Rehearsals

The Andover High School Marching Band announces the start of its 1988-89 year with four rehearsals scheduled: after-school from 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m. in the high school band room on Wednesday, June 8, Thursday, June 16, and Wednesday, June 22, and one evening rehearsal, required of all members, on Tuesday, June 14, from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The band will travel to the Northeast Music Camp in Ware to hold its "band camp" from August 28 to September 1. The band will learn the field show, both music and marching, with which it will compete this fall. Last year the band won the New England Scholastic Band Association Division I Marching Band championship and the awards for best music (for the fourth consecutive year) and best percussion scores.

The staff this season will include Marc Keroack, band director; Mark Sanchez, assistant director; Joseph Taylor, music arranger; Peter Furnari, percussion arranger and instructor; Bob Mulvanity, drill designer and instructor; and Rich Rigolini, color guard instructor. Drum majors Kym O'Neill and Sue Boush will lead the band on the field.

Rigolini announces that a few openings exist in the color guard and he hopes to see many new faces at the June 14 rehearsal.

The color guard is open to anyone from grades 8-12. No previous musical or marching experience is required.

For more information, call Keroack during school hours, leave a message with the music teacher or at the main office.

Medical Degree Recipient

Kathleen F. Devaney of Andover received a Doctor of Medicine degree from the University of Massachusetts Medical School on June 5. She is married to Robert Devaney and is a graduate of Tufts University.

Devaney will serve her residency in pediatrics at Massachusetts General Hospital, Boston.

Since its opening in 1970, the state's medical school has educated 1,158 physicians. The 44 women and 52 men in this year's class are all residents of Massachusetts and represent 62 towns and cities. Almost half of the graduates will remain in Massachusetts for their residencies; their classmates will serve residencies in 26 other states.

Honors

Marybeth Sweeney of Andover, a senior, achieved first honors for the fourth marking period at Our Lady of Nazareth Academy, Wakefield.

Treasures, Trivia On Agenda

By Virginia Lopez Begg

The Andover Historical Society invites the public to its next regular morning coffee on Tuesday, June 14, at 9:30 a.m. at their headquarters, the Amos Blanchard House on Main Street. The morning coffees, with refreshments provided by Doris Newton and Mildred West, are free and serve as an introduction to the society's resources for newcomers. A short program follows refreshments.

This month's program, "Show & Tell - Treasures & Trivia," features members of the morning coffee committee speaking informally about interesting objects that illustrate an older way of life in Andover. Ruth Sharpe will talk about summertime on the Shawsheen when that river was the scene of such hot-weather delights as swimming and boating for area residents. An old paddle from the era will complement her talk.

Jan Henderson's remarks will focus on quilt patterns. She will have some examples to show and describe how small pieces of fabric can go from rags to riches. Bernice Haggerty will share part of her collection of Andover souvenirs—postcards, plates and other reminders of Andover's past. Ruth Sherwood's description of tithe groups will be new to most people. These are ceramic figures that make a political statement. One example features the tax collector and a harried family.

Charlotte Smith, the society's director/curator, will show some of its newest acquisitions, objects recently donated. Those attending the coffee are invited to bring treasures or trivia of their own. Whether the object is a family heirloom or an item with an interesting tale, all are invited to tell their stories. Barbara Loomer, who chairs the committee, welcomes suggestions for future morning coffee programs.

The Andover Historical Society, accredited by the American Association of Museums, is a non-profit, educational institution open to members and the public. For information on open hours, exhibitions, tours, special events and membership, call the society office between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Chamber Hosts Breakfast

Consumer attitudes and personal buying plans in the Merrimack Valley will be the focus of an economics affairs breakfast hosted by the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, June 21, at Bishop's Restaurant, Hampshire Street, Lawrence, from 7:30 a.m. to 9 a.m., according to Laurence R. Smith, the chamber's executive vice president.

Dr. Carol C. McDonough, professor of economics at the University of Lowell who completed a major study of the changing consumer buying patterns for the Bank of New England-North, will make the presentation. Richard Alden, president of Bank of New England-North, will introduce McDonough and conduct the question-and-answer period which will follow the presentation.

"This should be a valuable source of information for area business people," Smith said. "For 11 years, Bank of New England-North has been conducting these surveys of consumer attitudes and buying habits. That means that Dr. McDonough's latest work has a considerable amount of historical perspective and a solid basis for forecasting future patterns," he said. Smith also said that the survey includes data on buying attitudes based on gender, age, income levels, life-style and other relevant demographic profiles.

BACK TALK

by Dr. Thomas M. Sheehan
Chiropractor

Have you ever heard your back cry for help? The cry is pain and it demands immediate attention. Unfortunately, there are many who choose to ignore back pain.

Back pain can be caused by a variety of things such as lack of exercise, excessive sitting, stress, or minor bumps and jars on an already fatigued back. Misalignment of the spinal vertebrae is another serious cause of back pain. If allowed to persist this condition can lead to spinal degeneration and irreparable damage.

Sometimes, the most severe pain in the back can be the easiest for a Chiropractor to alleviate. However, any unrelieved back pain requires immediate action.

If you suffer from back pain don't ignore it. Chiropractors are spinal specialists and are well qualified to decide what should be done to correct the cause of back pain and related problems and they do it without the use of medication or surgery.

Throughout the month of June Dr. Sheehan will be performing free spinal screenings to determine if your back problem can be helped by Chiropractic. Call his office for an appointment. Why wait for your problem to get worse when it can be corrected?

AT OUR SCHOOLS

THE TOWNSMAN, JUNE 9, 1988

John Guschover and his pal Jason Peterson get into the spirit of Pike School's picnic and art show May 31.

Pike Celebrates The Season

Pike School students got spring off to a good start May 31 with its all-school picnic.

Although the picnic is held annually, this marked the first year that it was a fund-raising event. Ninth-grade students sold $1 buttons before and during the event, whose proceeds went to Bread and Roses, a soup kitchen in Lawrence, said Arnold Dyer, the school's spokesman.

Ninth-graders have been volunteering some of their evenings at Bread and Roses for the past couple of years. "It gives them a realization that right close to Andover there are people who are far less privileged than many schoolchildren imagine," Dyer said. "Even though it is not always pleasant to be aware of this, it is important to be aware and to be able to share with those who have less."

The kids raised over $100 for the soup

Pike students give singer Ben Tousley some help with a song.

DECA Gearing Up For Next School Year

By Kristine Nims

Andover High School students who want to join the Distributive Educational Club of America next year have to be enrolled in marketing classes.

"Any student in marketing is strongly encouraged to become a member," said DECA adviser Joanne Samra. "The experience of interviews, role-playing and competitions paves the way for a future occupation."

The national DECA competitions were held in Salt Lake City, Utah this spring. The 42nd Career Development Conference, with the theme "Celebrating Your Success," attracted participants from every state.

Among them were Andover High students Holly Ruma, competing in apparel and accessories; Mike Smith, full-service restaurant management; and Chris Geaghan, vehicles and petroleum. Geaghan became a finalist for his outstanding achievements his three tests. Smith was recognized for excellence when he placed first on an oral test in basic social skills.

Although students were tested both in writing and orally, they had enough free time to sightsee and socialize. There were planned activities for free time that included a block party and a laser show.

Salt Lake City was crowded with DECA members, and all of the hotels were filled. There were more than 8,000 competitors and 2,000 advisers. The 1,000 judges were businesspeople from around the country.

Samra said the competitions are worthwhile because they're hands-on. "They deal with real-life situations," she said.

Samra said she wishes more people knew about DECA and its benefits. She said the club "is the only national organization for a career in retailing, and it develops skills in marketing to the fullest."

Nims is an AHS senior.

Mike Giammusso, Andover High School sophomore, and junior Dan Isaacs take a break from festivities at an outdoor rock concert and barbecue held at the high school May 31. About 400 students came out to watch performances by six bands. Faculty members at Andover High sold hot dogs and hamburgers at the event. The concert was one of many activities scheduled for senior week. The purpose was "to build a community spirit and to involve all different segments of the students," said acting assistant principal Tim Thomas.

BABY TALK

by Jack Resnick

When your baby starts to sit without support, it's time to replace the inclined infant seat. A "bounce" chair, suspended on springs and weighted at the bottom to prevent tipping, is more suitable for restless, squirming energy. The chair will keep the lower back supported, even when the baby leans forward, and won't capsize under any normal conditions. Later it will also help the baby learn how to stand; if the chair has a tray, it's a handy place for toys. A four-to-five month-old also will enjoy a swing. You can buy a wind-up model or a canvas swing that can be hung from a doorway.

Is there a baby due in your family or one already living there? Local Boy Places 32nd In Bee

By Julie M. Barry

Spelling the word "keratopathy" incorrectly in the sixth round may have ruined Allen Soong's chances at gaining the championship in National Spelling Bee, but he still managed to place 32nd in a 200-person contest.

Allen, an eighth-grade student at Doherty Junior High School, was The Lawrence Eagle-Tribune champion last April. That victory enabled him to compete in the 61st annual National Spelling Bee championship in Washington, D.C. last week.

In reference to the word he misspelled, Allen said he had never heard it—"keratopathy," which means a disease of the cornea—before the spelling bee.

But, he said, he was familiar with the word "keratoplasty"—corneal surgery. "I knew they were related," he said. "I had the correct spelling in my mind but I didn't spell it right."

He spelled keratopathy with an "o" in place of the first "a." Allen attributes his misspelling to a "slip of the tongue."

He started preparing for the national competition in mid-April when he won the Eagle-Tribune championship. He says he studied about one-and-a-half to two hours every day. Before that, he says he had studied many hours for the local spelling bee.

Lists of words used in previous spelling bees, The Regional Word List, and a book, Words of the Champion, were given to Allen to help him prepare for the spelling bee, he said.

That type of help only goes so far because words from those sources were not used after round five. "They used other words," Allen said.

Allen says he enjoyed the experience and meeting the participants, who represented 47 different states. While noting that he did learn a lot, he laughed and said the bee called for "a lot of useless words I'll probably never use again."

Allen and his family spent a week in Washington. When he wasn't competing, Allen said he and his family went sightseeing through the capital city. They visited the Lincoln Memorial, the Washington Monument and the Smithsonian Institute.

Was he satisfied with his performance? "I know I could have done better," he said. "I'm not satisfied, but I'm not really disappointed because 32nd isn't bad."

Allen Soong of Acropolis Circle, left, is back home after a trip to Washington, D.C. for a national spelling bee, in which the Doherty eighth-grader placed 32nd.

MRI Facility Certified

The Merrimack Valley MRI, Inc., a diagnostic imaging facility located on the grounds of Bon Secours Hospital, 70 East St., Methuen, was recently awarded certificate of need approval by the Massachusetts Public Health Council.

"After a very thorough review of the project conducted by the Massachusetts Department of Public Health which assessed need planning and the Rehab Associates of New England's ability to manage such a facility, the Public Health Council voted on May 17 to grant the Determination of Need, therefore upholding the Department of Public Health's recommendation for approval," explains Phillip Katz, Ph.D., RANE, director of development. The application was submitted in September 1986.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging (MRI) provides patients with a new diagnostic procedure without the use of x-rays. Clinicians are able to see a patient's internal structure by utilizing a combination of magnetism, radio waves and computer technology. MRI allows for accurate diagnosis, earlier assessments by physicians, and provides information for prompt treatment decisions.

The MRI Center is performing approximately 70 examinations a week on a physician-referral basis. It is open evenings and weekends to minimize patient delay. Howard M. Gardner, M.D., president of RANE, was also cited for his work.

Is Dad the automatic type?

SOME dads like photos to take themselves: auto focus, auto exposure, auto flash.

OTHER dads like to spin F-stops and read manuals and books on photography and are not satisfied until they place Zone 5 of the subject on Zone 5 of the printed photograph.

STILL others are somewhere between.

OVER the years, there's something we've discovered to be universally true: nearly all dads we know like to take pictures and like them to come out nicely.

And there is nothing that makes a more thoughtful gift for Father's Day than something from Andover Photo that makes picture taking more fun.

COME in and describe your father to us and also whether you want to spend under $20 (we can think of a nice filter he'd like) or even up to several hundred dollars (an automatic, semi-automatic or manually operated camera) on a nice gift. We're sure we can find just the right thing for you and that special man in your life.

Trends in Kitchen and Bath Design

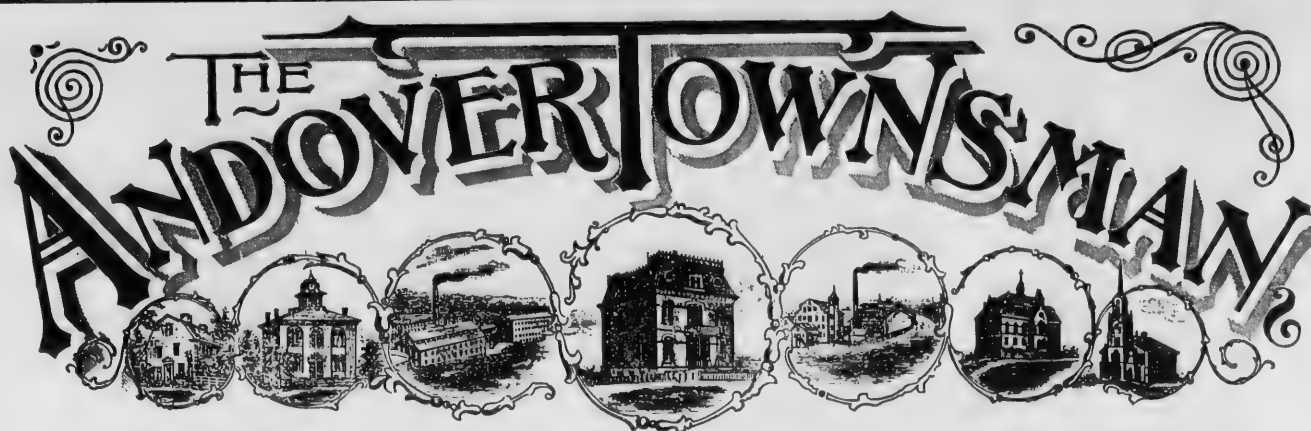

by Kevin Hennessey and Sean Walsh

A toilet seat can help establish the decor for the entire bathroom and thus should be selected for more than its functional purpose. Seats are manufactured in solid molded plastic as well as in molded wood with baked-on enamel. Matching colors are available for most nationally distributed fixtures. The shape of the seat selected will be determined by the shape of the water closet itself - round or elongated bowl. The lid may be "full-size" to "close" the front, or it may be slightly smaller, closing back a bit from the edge of the seat itself. Look for cast-iron corrosion-resistant hinge posts in selecting a toilet seat. Seats with an easily removed hinge to simplify bowl and seat cleaning are also available.

Cabinets are also a focal point in the bathroom. The shape and size play a major part in the traffic flow of the room. Here at VARIATIONS IN WOOD, INC. we have a staff of designers that can efficiently utilize the space available creating a room that is both functional and luxurious. Dramatic or bold, VARIATIONS IN WOOD, INC. can turn today's bathrooms into tomorrow's dreams. With our custom cabinetry, we can meet your everyday need. Come in and let us discuss what we can do for you. You will find us conveniently located at 2370 Turnpike St., Route 114. To reach us, call 683-4056.

The pull-chain toilet of the Victorian era is making a comeback as a decorator bathroom approach.

Celebrating 100 Years With The Best Pages In Andover's History

Completes Epilepsy Fellowship

Dr. Michael Bralower

Dr. Michael Bralower of Andover was one of 25 physicians nationally selected to attend a week-long fellowship program in the treatment of epilepsy at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine of Wake Forest University in Winston-Salem, N.C.

The participants heard lectures on the state-of-the-art diagnosis and treatment of epilepsy, attended and gave actual case presentations and expanded their knowledge of epilepsy through audiovisual presentations.

J. Kiffin Penry, M.D., professor of neurology and associate dean for research development at the Bowman Gray School of Medicine, supervised the fellowship. He established the epilepsy program at the National Institutes of Health and completed his tenure there in 1979 as director of the neurological disorders program. Penry is a member of the board of directors of the Epilepsy Foundation of America.

"The course allows physicians to more accurately diagnose and manage patients with seizures," Penry said. "Special emphasis is placed on medication modification as well as the development of support system for patients with epilepsy."

The fellowship program addressed in detail accurate classification of seizure type, one of the most crucial issues in the treatment of epilepsy.

"Proper classification is the vital first step in the treatment of any seizure," Penry said. "Unless the seizure is properly classified, it is very difficult for the neurologist to prescribe the appropriate medication."

"With the modern drugs now available, it is no longer necessary for physicians to routinely prescribe several drugs to control seizures," he said. "In a majority of cases, one drug is sufficient. By using only one drug, the side effects common with the use of multiple medications are reduced."

Participating physicians will receive continuing updates on the most recent advances in the treatment of epilepsy.

Butler In Organ Recital

Douglas L. Butler will give an organ recital on the 125-year-old "Great Organ" at the Methuen Music Hall on Wednesday, June 15, at 8 p.m.

He will play Toccata and Fugue in d minor, BWV5 by Johann Sebastian Bach; Sonata in a minor, Wq 70/4 (Berlin 1755) by Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach; Prelude in C Major (1765) by Johann Christoph Kellner; Two Pieces (1794) - Andante Solto, e-flat Major and Andantino, B-flat Major by Christian Gotthilf Tag; Fantasy in g minor and Fugue in G Major (1789) by David Taubert Nicolai; from "Praktische Orgelschule" Op. 55 (1819-21) by Johann Christian Heinrich Rinck; Theme and (6) Variations, Op. 16 by Ernst Koehler; Sonata No. 3 in a minor, Op. 24 (1853) by August Gottfried Ritter.

Butler is organist at First Baptist Church and Temple B'nai Israel in Albany, Georgia. He is instructor in music history and organ at Georgia Southwestern College in Americus and director of the historical keyboard instruments division and artist-in-residence for the interior design firm of Ducworth and Bass in Albany. A native of Georgia, Butler studied under a variety of scholarships and teaching fellowships at Stetson University, the University of Florida and the University of Oregon, working with Paul Jenkins, Willis Bodine and John Hamilton. He is known as a specialist in the late 18th and 19th century German organ literature. Butler appears under the exclusive concert management of Artist Recitals, Los Angeles, Calif.

The organ, which is listed in the National Register of Historic Places, provides endless resources for the interpretation of all periods of organ literature. The Methuen organ remains one of the most noble examples of the "king of instruments."

The Music Hall is located on Route 28, Broadway. John Dunn, organ, and Thomas Cook, trumpet, will perform at a special scholarship fund recital on June 22.

Philharmonic To Appear State Park

The Merrimack Valley Philharmonic Orchestra will present a concert of popular, show tunes and light classics at Maudslay State Park, Curzon Mill Road, Newburyport, on Sunday, June 16, at 3 p.m. in the first of what is hoped will be a series of outdoor summer concerts at one of Massachusetts' newest state parks. George Monseur, music director of the orchestra, will conduct. The program is sponsored by the Concert in the Parks Committee of the Massachusetts Department of Environmental Management.

Maudslay State Park consists of 450 acres of what was once the Mosley Estate on the banks of the Merrimack River. The park features garden walks and hiking trails and an equestrian trail around the gardens of azaleas, lilacs, roses and the famed mountain laurels. Picnickers are welcome.

Academy Announces Summer Chamber Music Festival

Professional musicians and talented students from all areas of the United States will gather in Andover for the annual Summer Festival of Chamber Music, a six-week program which is part of the Phillips Academy Summer Session, July 8 through August 9.

Music Director William Thomas explains that the music is selected from the standard repertoire for chamber music as well as for larger ensembles in which both students and faculty perform together. The larger groups include a string orchestra, woodwind ensemble, chamber orchestra, concert choir and symphony orchestra.

Phillips Academy Andover opened for instruction shortly before the Continental Army marched out of Valley Forge and, in a sense, the school and nation have grown up together. John Hancock signed its Act of Incorporation in 1780 and George Washington sent his nephews there to study.

Paul Revere was commissioned to make the Phillips Academy seal in 1782. He engraved the educational faith of Andover's founders, "The end depends upon the beginning," around the symbols of the rising sun and the hive of industrious bees. The founders' commitment to the common good is symbolized by the second motto, "non sibi"—"not for one's self."

All concerts are free of charge and, unless otherwise noted, will take place in Graves Hall. The public is invited.

Lecture At Museum

The Museum of American Textile History will hold a lecture and question-and-answer session on "Caring for Your Antique Textiles" by Kathy Francis, chief conservator of the museum's Textile Conservation Center, and Muffie Austin, her assistant.

The conservators' presentation will take place Wednesday, June 15 at 7 p.m. at the museum, 800 Massachusetts Ave., North Andover.

The program is free. Because of the fragility of antique fabrics, those attending are welcome to bring questions, but the conservators ask that they leave their antique textiles at home.

Theater Workshops Scheduled

Have you ever wanted to act, direct or work behind the scenes in local theater? Would you like to learn how to perform onstage? Audition for a particular part? Or even direct a group of actors to bring out their best?

Do you have the talent to design sets or put together special lighting effects? Or would you like to find out what happens backstage during a performance?

The Andover Theatre Company can help you learn all of this and more.

ATC, in conjunction with the Andover Department of Community Services, is offering two series of summer workshops for people of high school age and above interested in the theater arts. Both workshops start the week of June 27 and run for six weeks.

The stage performance workshop will meet on Tuesdays from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. Participants will learn about auditioning, improvisation techniques, how to use a stage, what stage direction is all about and how to direct others successfully. There will be opportunity to perform onstage by acting, dancing, singing or directing.

The play production workshops will meet Thursday evenings and teach what needs to be done, apart from directing and acting, to put together successful productions. This includes set design, stage construction, lighting design and set up, what a producer needs to know, how makeup can be used effectively and other related topics.

ATC members with many years of experience in all aspects of professional or community theatre are the instructors. Guest speakers will offer insight in their specialized areas of expertise.

No previous theater experience is required. Consult the DCS Summer Program catalog for information about registration, which begins Monday evening, June 13, at Doherty Junior High School.

For further information, contact Ellen Zipeto, ATC president.

Museum Awarded Grant

The Museum of American Textile History has been awarded a $62,274 general operating support award by the Institute of Museum Services. These prestigious grants, which this year totaled $17 million to 402 U.S. museums, are the most sought-after federal museum awards because they provide virtually unrestricted direct support for all types of museum activities.

The general operating support program received 1,311 applications for the one-year grants, which are made on a competitive basis. The award is based on the applicant museum's strength and quality, defined as the judicious management of the museum's available resources to provide the best possible services to its community and the general public. The competition for these funds is strong, and museums that receive the awards have demonstrated their commitment to high standards in operations and services to the public.

The Museum of American Textile History received particularly high marks from the judges on education, staff and exhibits. The normal reviewers' comments included: "Credentials and training of professional staff is outstanding. Sets a high and emulable standard. Museum's responsiveness to and interest in specialized and general audiences is outstanding. Dramatic increases in attendance and public recognition suggest that museum is on an upward spiral towards greater community service and participation. Hands-on features and operation of suitable factory machinery add a dynamic dimension to exhibition and educational programs, perhaps available nowhere else."

The Institute of Museum Services, an independent federal agency, was established by Congress in 1976 to assist museums in their education role and to help them modernize their methods and facilities so that they will be better able to preserve the nation's cultural, historic and scientific heritage. Other award winners this year range from the W.H. Over State Museum, Vermillion, S.D., and the Seattle (Wash.) Art Museum to the Bushy Run Battlefield, Jeannette, Pa., the Fort Wayne (Ind.) Children's Zoo and the Exploratorium, San Francisco, Calif.

'Cinderella'

Indian Hill Arts will present its spring Youth Theater production, Cinderella, Friday, June 10, at 7:30 p.m. and Saturday and Sunday, June 11 and 12, at 3 p.m. at the Littleton High School auditorium in Littleton.

This old favorite, which has delighted thousands of children and adults, has a few new twists: a prince who won't kill dragons; an Irish fairy godmother who turns to dressmaking due to laws against magic; a king and queen waiting to retire; and some extra surprised in and out of the court.

THE RELIGIOUS COMMUNITY

Affirmation Rite Sunday

The Unitarian Universalist Church of Andover, 6 Locke St., will celebrate a coming-of-age ceremony this Sunday, June 12, for three of its youth in a Rite of Affirmation.

Jennifer Ashlock, daughter of Joan and Bill Ashlock, Diana Dresser, daughter of Tom and Marjorie Dresser, and Helena Padellaro, daughter of Sandra and Frank Padellaro, are the affirmands.

The ceremony comes after a year of study with Patience Tranor, Adeline Wright and Karen Paterson, respectively, of religious heritage, its history, beliefs, people and structure. Service to the community was a practical application of their religious beliefs. The course of study helped them learn about their faith and achieve meaningful experiences in that faith. Each participant wrote a credo statement, an affirmation of their beliefs, which will be read in the coming-of-age ceremony.

The Rev. Rosemarie C. Smurzynski will deliver the homily, "The Prodigal Son's Older Brother," about the joy in a life that is animated by love and forgiveness.

There will be child care. A reception in honor of the affirmands will follow the service. Visitors are welcome.

Temple News

The Sisterhood of Temple Emanuel, 7 Haggets Pond Road, will hold its installation and closing luncheon Wednesday, June 15 at noon. A buffet luncheon will be served. The reservation deadline for the meal and babysitting arrangements is tomorrow; call the temple office for details.

EXPECTING A BABY?

For the past 5 years mothers and mothers-to-be have come to Anticipation because we make them look special, not typical. And it's our understanding, our selection, our attention and our sensible prices that keep them coming back.

Dream come true outfits for every mother or mother-to-be.

That's Anticipation.

League Remains Neutral On C-School Issue

By Julie M. Barry

The Andover League of Women Voters is not taking a formal position on the Andover-Lawrence Collaborative School project but they did hold an informational meeting Monday night at Phillips Academy's Cooley House.

The Collaborative School is an important issue, said League President Ruth Scarbeau. With this in mind, the League of Women Voters decided to host an unbiased, informational meeting with the facts as they know them, she said.

Several League members discussed the various facets of the school—the bilateral agreement concerning the governance of the school, the facilities, curriculum, teacher and student selection and a financial overview of the capital and operating costs.

Although the League is remaining neutral on the issue of the Collaborative School, they are taking a position on the special Town Meeting scheduled for June 20.

According to Scarbeau, the national and state Leagues of Women Voters generally support collaborative education, but the Andover chapter is staying out of the fray. "Instead of putting the League in the middle of this shooting war, we decided to take no position."

The League's stand on the Town Meeting, Scarbeau said, is neither supportive nor against the Collaborative School. "We are commenting on the political process. This Town Meeting is no more or less significant than the Town Meeting in April," said Scarbeau, adding that the meeting is

The Logistics Of The School

The League of Women Voters held a meeting Monday night to present information on the proposed Andover-Lawrence Collaborative School. "This is the very best shot at giving the most updated information," said Chris Holmes, meeting discussion leader.

- Bilateral agreement/governance: Seven-member Collaborative School Committee—three appointed by each of the local school committees, one being a current local school committee member. One member appointed by mutual agreement of the school superintendents from both Andover and Lawrence.

- An 11-member Collaborative Improvement Council—administrators, parents, teachers and community members report to the Collaborative School Committee.

The agreement can be amended with the approval of the Collaborative School Committee and both of the local school committees.

The agreement must be terminated. A termination amendment must be approved by the Collaborative and local school committees, the Lawrence City Council and the Andover Town Meeting.

- Facilities/curriculum: Core curriculum—reading, writing and arithmetic—and foreign language courses will be offered.

a valid meeting called within a constitutional right.

Citizens for Neighborhood Schools, the group opposed to the Collaborative School, called the meeting. Scarbeau says they must present information since they called the meeting.

It is also the School Committee's responsibility to present all available information, she added.

In a letter written June 6 to School Committee members, selectmen and Town Manager Kenneth Mahony, Scarbeau said "it was the position of School Committee Chairman Donald Robb (at a Finance Committee meeting on the Collaborative School May 26) that insufficient information is currently available to present a formal report."

The letter continued, "the League of Women Voters is deeply concerned that this 'lack of financial information' position will result in limited participation by the School Committee at the Special Town Meeting."

It is the citizens' responsibility to attend Town Meeting and decide if they know enough to make informed decisions about the school, Scarbeau said. "It is not the elected officials responsibility (to make that decision)," she said.

In closing the letter, Scarbeau said "it is our sincere hope that with the presentation of all current information, citizens will make an informed decision and that our elected representatives will be responsive to the will of the people."

ZBA Officially Denies Axelrod's Variance Requests For Condos

Ratifying an earlier vote, on June 3 the Zoning Board of Appeals made it official: the many variances requested by Harry Axelrod to build 33 condominiums next to the greens have been denied.

In a written decision approved unanimously by fellow board members, ZBA Chairman Wesley Whitney found no reason to grant 10 variances on the basis of hardships claimed by Axelrod.

In particular, two key variances dealing with project density and permitting construction activity in protected wetlands near Haggetts Pond and the Sheraton Rolling Green Hotel fell short of hardship standards, Whitney wrote.

Under town multi-family construction bylaws, 27 units would be the maximum allowed in the 30 acres of land owned by Axelrod. Through almost three years of informal negotiation with town planning officials, Axelrod has reduced the project's scope from 44 and, through his consultants, has maintained that 33 units is the minimum, economically feasible, size.

However, "The board finds there is no hardship alleged by petitioners which would support the granting of a variance," Whitney said.

The project may be limited by the requirements of the zoning law, but "no evidence (exists) that the premises cannot be developed within the limitations of this section of the bylaw," he wrote.

Under the plan submitted by Axelrod and his consultants, the dwellings occupy about 11 acres of land adjacent to the golf course. His attorney and land architect have said that part or all of the golf course might be removed to open up space for development if the variances weren't approved.

Whitney indicated that the board realizes denial could mean the elimination of the golf course, "However, the board does not understand that inability to use a portion of the premises as a golf course constitutes a hardship under the law."

"The issue of density is not related to the location or topography of the premises itself, but rather to the petitioner's desire for a project consisting of a golf course and 33 units with a design that is in substantial conflict with the zoning bylaw," Whitney wrote. "This request for a variance is denied."

The board also found that hardship was not sufficiently demonstrated to permit the installation of utility lines and grading activities within 50 feet of environmentally protected wetlands. They also ruled against two other requests asking for permission to disturb certain slopes in the area and for road access to cross over wetlands.

Ballardvale Station Closed For Repairs

By Frank Messina

The Ballardvale Fire Station will shut down for three weeks, from June 12 to July 3, for major renovations—the first time the station has closed its doors since it was built in 1870, say fire officials.

During the closure, Ballardvale station firefighters will be housed in, and will answer calls from, the Central station on Main Street.

Fire service to the area shouldn't be reduced appreciably, said Fire Chief Harold Hayes, although he did admit that response time would be stretched by "a couple of minutes, I won't kid anyone about that."

The Central station is about one-and-a-half miles from the Ballardvale facility and the Ballardvale crew would be approximately two to three miles from their farthest call, Hayes estimated.

Most of the renovation work will be centered around the single bathroom in the station which will be completely replaced. In the past, repair and maintenance of the 118-year-old plumbing system "has been done piecemeal, you've got lead (pipes) connected to copper, next to PVC," said Hayes.

Leaks from the plumbing system run from the bathroom down to the first floor and have created "an awful health hazard," said Hayes.

The town will also take advantage of the closure to work on the heating system and hot water service, said Hayes.

Firefighting was still in its Stone Age when the Ballardvale fire station was constructed before the turn of the century.

An around-the-clock staff of one volunteer firefighter and two horses manned the new station and for the next 60 years, according to Hayes, until the horses were put to pasture by a new-fangled motorized fire engine, Ballardvale blazes were fought like this:

A call comes into the station. The volunteer on duty bolts to

Delay Decision

Andover officials are leaning toward looking askance at the proposed Lawrence-Andover Collaborative School, with the Finance Committee the first to officially suggest rejection at the special June 20 town meeting.

While it is difficult to take such a position, it is understandable at this time.

Most of the planning for the proposed school was geared toward bringing the matter before Andover voters at a special town meeting in the fall. Then, petitions were presented for the special meeting to be called preferably on June 20 to decide whether the town should continue to pursue participation in the proposed school.

Meantime, proponents of the school have gone forward with surveys, seeking to determine if there would be sufficient enrollment figures from volunteer students in the Andover area.

Additional information is also being assembled, but, obviously, can not be gathered in sufficient time for an informed presentation on June 20.

The Finance Committee, in rejecting the proposal at this time, rightly pointed to the financing of the project and Andover's financial commitment to the school.

Questioned were such things as the wording of the agreement which would indicate Andover's funding, bonding arrangements and state participation in the funding of construction and continued financing of the school.

FinCom Chairman Joanne Marden properly observed that a vote at this time would be like providing the proponents with a blank check.

State funding of the project may well be in jeopardy, what with the budget deficit now facing the legislature and, ultimately, Bay State taxpayers.

School committee members have indicated that they well may not be prepared to vote in the issue or make a decision prior to the June 20 meeting due to the lack of complete information.

Other municipal officials appear hesitant as well and not without good reason.

Frankly, the proposal is too important to make a decision in haste, which is what will happen on June 20.

Those who oppose the school say that deciding now will allow Andover school committee members to work on other essential items pertinent to local schools.

Such an argument is hardly valid, since school board members are continually working on matters dealing with both present and future school policies, problems and programs.

Rejection of the school at the June 20 meeting does not eliminate it from consideration at a later date, possibly in the fall, as originally planned.

Based on information currently available, it would seem the proper course would be to vote against it at this time and make a more sound judgment when all the facts are available, hopefully in the fall.

Just A Thought

By Bob Finneran

Have a suggestion on cutting some of the cost of public education.

Let the kids walk a little.

Now I'm not the greatest walker in the world, but observing the school bus routes in the community, one gets the impression that we are developing a generation of non-walkers.

The big yellow bird with its flashing lights, mechanical stop signs, etc. seems to be providing portal-to-portal service to the youngsters of Andover, who certainly seem in better shape to walk to a central pick up and drop off spot.

Not only are they missing out on a little exercise with this practically door-to-door bus regimen, one would think that just by the nature of the vehicle they are riding in they'd want to get off.

If you've ever been transported in one of those things, as I have as recently as this past week, they have to be the most uncomfortable vehicles ever to have had wheels set to them.

There have been occasions when organizations have secured a school bus for trips to Fenway Park or the like.

By the time the trip is over, the kidneys are jarred, the legs are so cramped it's difficult to get circulation moving and, in general, it's just plain uncomfortable.

And if refreshments are being served, forget it. A simple sip could result in being deluged should the bus go over so much as a pebble which is sufficient to jounce the entire vehicle.

So, why not let the kids walk a little bit, let them do some healthy exercise, save on gasoline and ultimately maybe on the cost of school transportation.

Nice to see the Red Sox back in the groove.

The team was supposed to be a solid contender for the American League East title before the season opened.

As the season nears the halfway point the Fenway Flock are wallowing.

Their multi-million-dollar slugger isn't hitting anything.

Wade Boggs is allegedly cavorting.

Some players are critical of the actions of their teammates.

And, the simple solution to all the chaos is the threat of firing the manager who doesn't pitch, bat or field.

But then, the old town team has pretty nearly always been like this and continue to be supported by millions of fans annually.

Just doesn't seem to make sense.

DOWN THE YEARS

100 Years Ago — May 1888

The Selectmen wish to advise those who have bills against the town, to leave them with the Town Clerk or the auditors tomorrow and they will be properly audited for payment.

The Niotus Club grounds presented a most attractive appearance Memorial day afternoon, about two hundred people being present to witness the ball game between the Niotus Club team and the Seminary men; and the visitors were well repaid for coming, in the game of ball that was finally won by the Theologues 8 to 5.

The house of Mrs. Allen has been greatly improved by its new windows and coat of paint.

Prof. and Mrs. Churchill gave a large and pleasant reception last evening, more especially to the teachers and friends of "the three institutions."

Mrs. Chas. Clark of Bangor, Maine., is visiting her son, Principal Clark of the Punchard School. Mrs. Clark's father, Mayor Forest C. Little of Lewiston, Me., with his wife have just been here also.

The annual Catalogue of Abbot Academy is just out, bearing the imprint of the Andover Press, and containing the names of twelve teachers and one hundred pupils, with other information about the School.

75 Years Ago — May 1913

The number of books issued at the Memorial Hall library during May was 2579 volumes. The branch at Ballardvale was opened on May 6, but after two days, owing to the epidemic of measles, the Board of Health decreed that the books could be issued only to families where there were no school children. This shut out fully three-quarters of the people in Ballardvale so that for the eight afternoons the branch was open during the month of May, only 173 books were borrowed.

Rev. Frank R. Shipman preached at the South church last Sunday morning, his reappearance in the pulpit being greatly enjoyed by the congregation.

Parents' Day will be observed at Punchard school. No special program will be carried out, but parents will be welcome to visit the school and view the work which is being done.

Mr. and Mrs. William Harnden Foster left town this week for their summer home at South Freeport, Maine.

The Sunday School teachers of the South church enjoyed a very pleasant basket picnic at the farm of Francis H. Foster on Central street on the holiday.

50 Years Ago — May 1938

Commencement week will start tomorrow night at Abbot academy with the annual school rally at 7:45 with singing on the steps of Abbot hall. This year Phillips academy's commencement week festivities take place a full week after the Abbot program.

Andover may have an opportunity of hearing 700 male voices in a joint concert next May if an idea now being talked about materializes. Yearly the New England Federation of Men's Singing clubs holds a contest and a concert, and at these in the past the Andover Male Choir has played a promi-

THE PUBLIC FORUM

THE TOWNSMAN, JUNE 9, 1988

Not Effective

To The Editor of The TOWNSMAN:

While living in Lawrence, I learned how to spot political rhetoric a mile away. The letter on May 29 from school committee member John C. Housianitis is a great example of this finely honed art. Here was a Lawrence city official that had ratified an agreement between the Town of Andover and the City of Lawrence implying that the citizens of Andover needed more information than "he" had in order to vote on the same issue. After using words like "concrete proposal" and "planned steps for implementation" in describing the Collaborative Project, he is "surprised" that a town meeting vote will be called "without having all of the final details and/or questions raised and answered."

Before we review the "final details", I believe we should answer the most important question of all: Is there support for the collaborative school "concept" in both communities. This "fundamental detail" seems to be the last question that anyone wants to ask. It seems ludicrous that we will have architectural drawings of the facility before the question is asked. It seems hypocritical that the high cost of the facility will be due in part to "materialistic" things like swimming pools and field houses. As we watch and read about a serious deficit in the state budget and the deaf ears that the state has turned towards Lawrence's current financial problems in the school system, we can only laugh when Mr. Housianitis proposes that this concept will be a "beacon to the rest of the state."

The ideas about a "Super School" with sophisticated curriculum development, teacher training, and a quality physical plant have been around for many years. The reality of building such a costly school could only be envisioned if the state funded a massive amount of the capital costs and operating expenses. The only way to get this kind of funding was by building some form of regional school. The geographic barriers are used to encourage support that make it better at achieving these goals than other options. The major intent is to get the "Super School" built (at any cost).

The motto of our school systems throughout the state should be: "The best education possible for all people at the lowest possible cost." Senator William Bulger has proposed legislation that would encourage suburban schools to open their doors to children living in cities such as Lawrence. Although the details of such a plan must be worked out, this would seem to me to be a fine way of providing parents superior choices for their children's education. The competition to attract students would encourage creative ways for each school system to improve their services. Parents could make decisions based upon factual, not predicted, performance of the school. Utilization of existing schools in a region could be optimized to reduce variances caused by local population fluctuations. This could afford significant savings to a taxpayer. Collaboration of schools with their communities is not a concept that is owned by the proposed joint school. This idea costs nothing to implement in the present schools and if the details of the Bulger proposal were satisfactorily worked out, collaboration between communities would be greatly enhanced.

As a former Lawrence resident, I can fully sympathize with parents who want a better education than the Lawrence school system is currently providing. As a current Andover resident, I want to see my school system providing the best possible education to my children. As a taxpayer, I want to see the best possible use of my money in providing the children of our state the finest education possible. As an informed person, I do not believe that the collaborative school is an effective way of achieving these goals.

Ted Vucurevich
Andover

Sense Of Community

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

We moved to Andover seven years ago because my husband had grown up and attended schools here. My late father-in-law, Charlie Adams, had been in the school system almost 20 years, so it was literally "coming home" for us. There is a very special feeling when people recognize your family; the children are thrilled that there are teachers who worked with "Pop" and knew their dad when he was a boy. It is this sense of community that is lacking in our society today and it is for this reason that we live in Andover.

Granted, there are things that make me unhappy with West, where my children attend school. But, a rigid reading program, acoustically defective pod classrooms and an uninspired playground are not enough reason for me to abandon West to place my children in a collaborative school.

I am a firm believer in "clean up your own house first" before you go out to "clean up the world." The curriculum needs to be redeveloped, equipment updated and teachers need to be rewarded for their inspired effort. For, despite the inadequate facilities, administrative and parental pressures, the teachers are really teaching my children. That is what education is all about.

Let's improve what we already started. Let's allow the School Committee to focus on on our own schools' shortcomings and on the concerns of our teachers. Let's allow our children to feel secure and special in elementary school.

All of the wonderful proposals for a collaborative school could be implemented in our schools first. Once our schools are meeting the children's and teachers' needs, we can reach out to other communities.

My four children will all attend West Elementary. As the older ones move on, having learned from many wonderful teachers, the younger ones will move in, already knowing Mrs. Walker's songs and that Mrs. Darby once taught their dad and cousins.

Opposed To School

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

As a lifelong Andover resident, parent and educator in its schools, I am opposed to the Collaborative School Proposal. This proposal for educational reform in the guise of a "collaborative" school presupposes that the local school can no longer make a difference and we must resort to costly 'voluntary options.' The state also enters the picture with its short-lived financial support and its many changing regulations and bureaucratic departments ready to make earth shattering change in the educational process.

Change doesn't happen easily or quickly. Educational ads and slogans come and go, but the local schools are here to stay. Each child is different and has something to contribute. No matter how many subjects you offer or teach, if kids don't feel good about themselves, they won't be whole people. We certainly don't need a $25-40 million "new" environment with state involvement for this to occur. What is missing from these plans is any underlying notion of what really drives classroom teaching. We are already in various stages of curriculum development and implementation that is being proposed for this school. We must question the conventional wisdom, not just accept what the legislature or administrators say. We must insist that all students master the tools of learning as we move into the era of the 3 Cs—Calculate, Compute and Communicate in the language of technology.

If we are truly committed to change or, better yet, improvements in our schools, then we need to make some common assumptions:

that successful change/improvements begins at the school building level that those responsible, teachers, students, parents and site administrators, must have a major role in determining which changes are best suited to their schools that the dreams we commit to are the right ones and worth holding onto.

Let's focus education on all our local schools. Let's continue to develop the values we already hold for interaction, participation, initiative and collaboration. Let's simplify school structures and formulate school priorities. Let's focus on the most important issues of learning and to provide all teachers and students with the essential resources. Attend town meeting June 20 and support your local schools.

Support Project

To The Editor Of The TOWNSMAN:

For some time now there has been a good deal of healthy discussion over the proposed collaborative school between Lawrence and Andover. This project has progressed from being nothing more than an idea to a concrete proposal with planned steps for implementation.

The most immediate next step has been promoted by a group of Andover citizens who from the very outset have had serious concerns about this joint effort. The latest move on their part is to force a rather hastily called town meeting for the citizens of Andover to either vote yes or no on the entire project.

While the petition drive that was held to call for the special town meeting is certainly within the bounds of legality, it is somewhat surprising. This same group has sought questions to many of their concerns and answers have been provided. Many of their concerns are legitimate ones. What is rather surprising is that the group would seek an up or down town meeting vote without having all of the final details and/or questions raised and answered.

The spokesperson was quoted in the Eagle-Tribune as having said that once the school is defeated Andover can get back to taking care of its neighborhood schools. It is rather important to note, as I have stated at a joint meeting of the Andover and Lawrence school committees at the Frost School, that we must never lose sight of the fact that our "neighborhood" is the entirety of life around us. Our world does not and should not cease to exist as one crosses a town or city border. Our children are very deserving of growing up together in an environment filled with knowledge, hope, caring and unity. This proposed school will be a beacon to the rest of the state because of the type of cooperation and potential that exists between people of diverse backgrounds.

Chamber Elects Officers

William Scanlon, owner and CEO of Scanlon Hardware, was elected president of the Andover Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, June 2. He will serve as president for one year. Scanlon succeeds Andrew Caffrey, Jr., an Andover attorney who was elected in 1987. Because the Andover chamber is an ancillary arm of the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, Scanlon will also become an ex-officio member of the Greater Lawrence chamber's board of directors.

Ten directors were also elected in balloting of Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce members located in Andover. Four are newcomers: Michael Morris, with the law firm of Sweeney & Sargent; Wendy Perkins of Howe Real Estate; Jeffrey Sheehy of U-Store Here; and Amy Bernardin Slomba of Bernardin Insurance. All four were elected to a two-year term.

The other six members were incumbents seeking re-election to a two-year term: Clifford Boggis of BayBank Merrimack Valley; Jordan Burgess of Dundee Office Park; Mary Doherty of Doherty Insurance Agency; Enzo Fossella of Enzo of Andover; Richard E. Landry of Richard Landry and Associates; and Frank Orlandella of Hewlett Packard.

Caffrey will continue to serve on the board as immediate past president. John Daher, owner of Daher Shoes, will also remain a member of the Andover board serving as president of the Andover Center Association, a group of businesses located in the Andover Center area.

Nine other Andover business and professional leaders are beginning the second year of their two-year terms on the board: Michael Bellotti of Raytheon; Rev. Francis Cerullo of Merrimack College; Richard Chapell of Andover Photo; Atty. Gerald M. Cohen; Neil Cullen of Phillips Academy; Robert Finlayson of Real Estate Guide; Ms. Randall Hanson of Andover Savings Bank; Nancy McBride of Park Street Travel; and William Skoglund of the Andover Marriott Hotel.

Joseph Mesics of Phillips Academy and Stephen Stapinski of Merrimack Engineering will be retiring from the board's membership.

The newly elected officers and directors will formally take office at the Andover chamber's annual dinner at the Andover Marriott Hotel on Tuesday, June 14, at 6 p.m.

Recovery Facility Planned

By Virginia Cole

From Waste Watch, a publication from the State Department of Environmental Quality Engineering, comes a synopsis of the state plans for regional recycling. This column has already mentioned MRF (Materials Recovery Facility) and these plans will be the nucleus of the plan.

It is an entirely new approach to recycling because it involves a cooperative effort between the state and participating communities. The commonwealth provides capital funding to construct a recycling processing facility (MRF) where recyclable materials will be brought and processed into the form most desired by industrial users: glass sorted by color and crushed, cans cleaned and flattened and newspaper and cardboard baled. These high quality recyclable materials will attract markets and a competitive price.

The state also provides collection vehicles and equipment after each community has passed a mandatory recycling ordinance and conducts ongoing educational campaigns to ensure maximum citizen participation.

There will be a MRF in the Merrimack Valley which should service about 500,000 people. At this point no date has been set for the construction of this facility.

Andover residents wishing to improve our program and make it easier for all of us should lobby local and state representatives so that the Merrimack Valley plant will not be the last in line.

The division of solid waste management has already hired a new staff for developing and managing secondary materials and market development programs. Andover has passed a mandatory ordinance and we are ready for the next step.

Nursing

Northern Essex Community College will hold a Nursing Information Night on Monday, June 13, from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Northern Essex offers three program options leading to an associate degree in registered nursing and a ten-month certificate program in practical nursing. Registered nursing programs include a 2½ year evening option; a day option which requires two years of full-time study; and a 12-month option, an intensive program designed for the licensed practical nurse or individual with previous nursing education.

Presentations will be held at 5:15 p.m.

and 6:15 p.m., followed by group question-and-answer sessions.

Pirates, Cards To Scrap For NL Title

The first half title of the National Majors division of the Andover Little League will be decided this weekend. The Pirates can claim the crown by defeating the Cardinals tomorrow night. Should the Cards beat the Pirates, then the Mets on Saturday, they will win.

Last week's action was highlighted by Pirates' Matt Marvin's no-hitter. The righty's 12-strikeout performance paced the Pirates past the Mets 9-3.

Pirates 6 - Mets 2

Toby Guzowski went 3-for-3 at the plate, including a home run, and picked up a pitching win in relief. His support stemmed primarily from the bat of Matt Marvin, who cracked a pair of hits good for two RBIs.

Paul Allard had two doubles and Scott Munroe singled and stole two bases to highlight the Mets' offense. Brad Batchelder was sharp behind the plate.

Braves 10 - Mets 2

The Braves opened their second half and Matt Wolcott garnered his third mound victory of the year.

The Braves jumped on starter C.J. Dadd for four runs in the opening stanza. Dana DiFiore bunted safely, Hugh Quattlebaum doubled and Craig Edwards singled.

Edwards, behind the plate, gunned down a base thief at second, threw out another at home on a wild pitch and blocked the plate, then tagged out a potential Mets' run.

Tim Sullivan doubled in two runs, Kirk Stockwood singled three times and Wolcott belted his second homer of the year to round out the Braves' attack.

Chris Halecki rapped a double and reached base three times for the Mets.

Cubs 12 - Cards 11

The Cubs overcame a 9-0 deficit to beat the Cardinals and throw the National League into a three-way race. They entered the fourth runless, but exited with seven digits. Three more runs in the fifth and two in the sixth won the game for Rick Saggese's scrappy nine. Rick Saggese, Jr. did the most damage, clubbing a three-run homer, singling and scoring twice. David Kelmer clocked two doubles and Albie Giangregorio singled twice.

Rick Crispo, Paul Cassidy and Brian Flanagan chipped in two hits apiece for the Cardinals. Todd Harris threw three shutout innings.

Pettoruto Champion

Fifteen-year-old Mike Pettoruto of Andover won the Ektelon Northeast New England Junior Regional Racquetball championships May 6-8 in Auburn. He is the Massachusetts state champ and New England champ for the fifth time.

Pettoruto is current gold medal holder for the Bay State Games and is ranked second in the United States.

He has been invited to the U.S. Olympic Racquet Elite training camp in Colorado Springs, Colo., in July for training with the U.S. Olympic team.

Andover Football Parents Elect

The Andover Football Parents Organization, beginning its 12th year, announced its elected officers and directors for the 1988 season.

Alan McAnally, 4 Midland Circle, was elected president for a one-year term. Walter Ring will serve as vice president; Page Duffy, treasurer; Rosemary Surette, secretary.

Pam Carleton, Dan Ferris, Ann Reming, Ted Surette and Barbara Collins were elected directors and will serve through December.

The purpose of the Andover Football Parents Organization is to stimulate the interest of the people of Andover in the football activities of the junior and senior high schools and give recognition to the players and coaches. Membership is open to friends and parents of football players participating on school football teams. Last year membership exceeded more than 50 individuals.

Among the activities sponsored and funded by the organization each year are Meet the Coaches Night, Senior Recognition Day and the annual awards banquet. Bus transportation and game officials are provided for a "sophomore football schedule," allowing younger players the opportunity to play at a competitive level.

The organization manages and staffs the concession stand during all home games, funds cable T.V. coverage of varsity games and publishes the annual program that can be purchased at each home game.

With the movement of ninth graders to the high school this fall, a unified freshman football program will replace the two programs conducted at West and Doherty Junior high schools. "This is an excellent time for the parents of freshmen and sophomores to get involved with their sons and our organization," noted McAnally. "With over 100 football players expected this fall, we plan an active support program and need lots of help from all parents of the new players."

Anyone who would like to participate in or know more about the Andover Football Parents Organization is invited to contact McAnally.

Golf Tourney

The American Heart Association is sponsoring a series of golf tournaments, called the "Longest Day of Golf," at golf courses and country clubs in the northeast area of Massachusetts, including the Andover and North Andover country clubs, during June.

Teams of four players will tee off at dawn and play until dusk. The winners will be the team who completes the greatest number of holes. Prizes will be awarded to golfers who raise the most money, get the most sponsors and complete the greatest number of holes.

High school golf teams, golfing clubs, country club members, golf pros and avid golfers are invited to participate and/or help organize a "Longest Day of Golf" at their local/private golf courses.

13-Year-Old League

A stella performance by Mike Sullivan combined with a rally in the seventh inning led the Tigers to a 6-4 win over the White Sox. Sullivan was the winning pitcher with nine strikeouts. He also contributed three singles. Justin Hesenius had a homer and Steve Marchlik blasted a double, driving three runners across the plate. Doug Cullen and Pete Cookson had singles.

The Giants remained undefeated with two ties (counted as half-wins under league rules) during the past week. The Braves and Giants ended at 5-5 with Justin Hesenius battling Andy Brown and Gus Quattlebaum on the mound. Quattlebaum led the Giants with two base hits. In the Giants four-run fifth inning, Chad Bowman, Brown, Quattlebaum and Danny Trede had consecutive singles with Trede knocking home two. Hesenius (2), Steve Marchlik (a double), Mike Sullivan, Shawn Hadley and Smith had safeties for the Braves. The Giants' John Bowman had four stolen bases.

The Giants and White Sox tied 10-10 as darkness prevailed. Anthony Russo and Andy Brown were the starting pitchers for the White Sox and Giants, respectively. John Shea (4), Reji Hayes (2), Russo (2), Sean Reilly (2), Jason Rosenblatt (1) and Kevin Sharkey (1) were hitters for the White Sox. The Giants' offense produced ten base hits: Brown (2), Trede (2), Chad Bowman (1), Quattlebaum (1), Brendan Finneran (1), Keith Carey (1), John Brodine (1) and Mike Santangelo (1).

Leahy Awarded Letter

John Leahy, a junior at Drexel University, received his third varsity letter as a member of the men's baseball team at the squad's annual post-season banquet on May 22.

Leahy appeared in 24 games for the Dragons as a second baseman and designated hitter. He hit .203 on the season (13-for-64) and had two doubles and seven RBIs.

His best day at the plate was a 3-for-4 performance against Rutgers-Newark in Florida when he had one run scored and one RBI. His fielding percentage for the year was .841.

Leahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leahy of Tiffany Lane, Andover, is majoring in commerce and engineering and has worked on co-op with General Electric in their spacecraft division. He is a graduate of Andover High School.

Eggert Hurls Perfect Game

By Dan Grams

The Andover High School Junior Varsity baseball team closed their season with a pair of victories in their last full week of competition. They handed the Lowell Red Raiders a 5-4 setback in nine innings and came away with a 2-0 victory over the Lawrence Lancers as sophomore Chris Eggert pitched a rare perfect game.

This pair of wins and two losses that week left the Warriors with a 9-9 mark for the 1988 campaign.

Andover 2 - Lawrence 0

Eggert was in complete control from the very first pitch, retiring 15 batters on strikes while inducing four ground balls.

The two biggest opportunities to break this pitching gem were thwarted by great defensive plays. Centerfielder Doug Howes robbed a Lancer with a nice sprawling catch over the centerfield fence and Eggert made a perfect bare hand flipped to nip a potential Lancer hit.

Andover scored the only runs of the game in the opening stanza. Howes opened the game with a walk and moved to second on a Peter Reming single. Peter Radulski reached on an error to load the bases. An RBI pass on balls to Curt Solomon and Dana Orlando brought home the only runs of the game.

The Lawrence hurler allowed just five hits with Howes, Kevin Freel, Dave Carriere, Reming and Dan Ferris picking up the solo safeties.

Tewksbury 4 - Andover 1

Andover's bid to upend previously unbeaten Tewksbury came up short as Tewksbury won 4-1.

Dana Orlando was the Andover starter and allowed just seven hits, unfortunately five Andover errors led to two Redmen runs.

Andover's only score came in the sixth inning. Pinch hitter Kevin Freel led off with a walk and moved to second on a wild pitch. Paul Lembo's hit up the middle plated Freel. The Junior Warriors could manage just three hits with second baseman picking up a pair. Lembo had the other hit. Finn was a defensive standout, handling six chances flawlessly.

Andover 5 - Lowell 4

Sophomore Curt Solomon evened his mound ledger to 3-3 in a gutsy nine-inning stint as Andover edged Lowell 5-4 in extra innings. Dan Ferris' RBI hit was the game-winner as Andover improved its extra inning record to 2-1.

Trailing 1-0, Andover lit up the scoreboard for three runs in the first. Singles by Peter Reming, Solomon, Ferris, Kevin Freel and a Pete Radulski double were the key hits.

Back-to-back doubles by Solomon and Radulski brought the Warriors their fourth run before Lowell pushed across two tallies in the sixth to send the game into extra innings.

Peter Reming led off the ninth with his third hit of the game and stole second. Radulski followed with an infield hit. Solomon advanced both runners with a sacrifice bunt. Paul Lembo was intentionally walked setting the stage for Dan Ferris' heroics. He promptly deposited the pitch into left for the game-winner.

Solomon finished the game with an impressive three hitter, walking one and whiffing six. The Golden Warriors pounded out 14 hits with Radulski and Reming leading with three hits. Solomon and Ferris had a pair while Freel, Sean Gill, Lembo and Dana Orlando had the other safeties.

Billerica 7 - Andover 2

The Junior Warriors' season ended on a sour note as Billerica beat Andover 7-2.

Dana Orlando as the tough-luck loser for the second straight outing, spacing nine hits. He walked five while fanning three.

Andover could only muster two scoring threats. Three singles, by Dan Ferris, Peter Radulski and Andy Weiner, produced the first tally while a Radulski RBI double chased home Doug Howes with Andover's second and final run. Radulski had three hits while Curt Solomon had two and Ferris and Weiner joined the hit parade.

Awards Presented

The annual sports banquet at The Pike School was held Tuesday night, May 31. Every student who played on a team during the year was recognized. Varsity players received letters and J.V. players received certificates.

The girl's and boy's athletic trophies recognizing eighth and ninth graders for outstanding sportsmanship were awarded to eighth graders Laura Walsh of Bradford and Adam Winship of Andover. Recipients of the Kerri Kattar Awards for athletic ability and enthusiasm were eighth grader Eleanor Pyle and ninth grader Jonathan Forthingham, both of Andover.

At her retirement ceremony last June, longtime physical education teacher Sally Bullard was recognized by having an athletic prize created in her honor. The Bullard Award, presented for the first time, is given to sixth graders who love sports and have an unfailing regard for opponents as well as teammates. Receiving the award were Angela Chongris of Andover and Richard Abati of North Andover. The award was also given retroactively to two sixth graders from last year, Amy DiAdamo and Colin Arsenault, both of Andover.

Mooney Qualifies For State Meet

By Rick Harrison

Mike Mooney of Andover High qualified for this Saturday's New England Interscholastic Track and Field Championship Meet by placing third in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles event at the All-State Meet last weekend at Boston College Alumni Stadium.

Mooney's outstanding effort came on the heels of a championship run the previous Saturday, as he won the 300-meter intermediate hurdles championship at the State Class B Meet at Reading High.

John Perry (long jump) and Steve D'Urso (discus), meanwhile, were runners-up in their specialties at the Class B Meet to highlight Golden Warrior boys' team performances.

Both the Andover boys' and girls' squads, Merrimack Valley Conference Large School dual meet runner-up and undefeated champion respectively, finished fourth in the Class B team standings.

The Methuen boys edged host Reading for their division title, the Rangers compiling 73.5 points and the Rockets 71. Norwood was third with 47 points and coach Dick Collins' Warriors fourth in the 38-school field with 35.

On the 34-team girls' side it was also Methuen with 46.5 points, followed by Randolph (37), Reading (35.5) and Collins' Andover crew (35).

Six places were scored in each event on a 10-8-6-4-2-1 point basis.

Mooney, who has dominated the hurdles' event all spring, earned 10 points for Andover by racing to an impressive Class B victory with a 39.2 clocking.

Perry soared 21'6" in the long jump to finish just six inches behind champion Brett Harris of Newton South.

D'Urso uncorked a mighty 143'5" toss in the discus, placing second to Methuen's Bill Hitchmoth whose winning throw was 146'3."

Peter Vehlou contributed a fourth place in the javelin with a 166'11" toss, Steve Buscema was sixth in the pole vault after clearing 11'0," and the 400-meter sprint relay quartet of Perry, Mooney, Jeff Ring and Devon Arsenaault placed fourth in 44.9 seconds.

The Andover girls placed in no less than eight events at the Class B Meet, but third was the highest position.

Chris Recesso was fourth in the 300-meter intermediate hurdles with a 48.0 effort, speedster Sue Santagati placed fourth in the 100-meter dash in 13.0 seconds, and Nancy Walsh was fourth in the 200-meter run (27.7).

Brenna Cronin earned a pair of fifth-place finishes for the Golden Warriors in the triple jump (33'10") and 400-meter dash (63.4).

Jackie Kupa was sixth in the shot put (33'8"), Kim Heseltine sixth in the discus (92'7"), and Kathy Radulski sixth in the 300 hurdles (48.3).

The 400-meter sprint relay crew featuring Santagati, Walsh and Cronin grabbed the lone third place with a 51.3 performance.

Recesso, Santagati, Walsh and Cronin represented the Andover girls at the All-State Meet, which brought together the top Class athletes from Eastern, Central and Western Mass.

At the All-State Meet last weekend, Mike Mooney was again the top performer as he finished an impressive third in the 300 intermediate hurdles with a 39.3 clocking.

Mooney's effort earned six points for the Golden Warriors, and also qualified him for the season-ending New England Championship Meet at BC this Saturday.

Steve D'Urso captured Andover's only other point at the All-States, tossing the discus 141'5" to place sixth.

Hechemy Makes AHS Tennis History

By Rick Harrison

If he isn't the best tennis player in the history of the Andover High program, he's awfully close.

Junior Jeff Hechemy enters this week's Eastern Mass. Team Tournament owner of a 62-5 career record at AHS, and with another year left he'll likely graduate with close to 90 victories for the Golden Warriors.

Hechemy recently completed a perfect 16-0 regular season, losing only one set in Merrimack Valley Conference play, and the 1988 MVC Most Valuable Player also won six consecutive matches in the Eastern Mass. Individual Tournament before bowing in the championship final to Lubos Kozek of Lexington.

"I believe Jeff went further than any other Andover player ever has in the individual tournament," said AHS boys' coach Mike Wartman.

"He wins with excellent groundstrokes and a great forehand. He's a very steady player who doesn't make mistakes. He serves well and hits the ball hard.

"Jeff also has a deceptive drop shot," continued Wartman. "It's a part of the game he's been working on lately, although his style of play right now doesn't call for the drop shot too often."

It is, however, another weapon to add to Hechemy's already devastating arsenal.

"Jeff generally will overpower opponents from the baseline," noted Wartman. "He doesn't rush the net very often, but he would definitely be classified as an offensive player."

Roger Landry, the No. 1 singles' player for Lowell High who joined the long list of frustrated foes swept aside by Hechemy in straight sets, also put the emphasis on the Andover junior's forehand.

"His backhand is exploitable, sometimes, but there really is no major weakness in his game," offered Landry.

In Hechemy's three years at Andover the Golden Warriors have won three Merrimack Valley Conference titles, sharing the top spot twice with Chelmsford (1986) and Lowell (this year).

Last spring Andover advanced to the state Division 2 team final before losing to Sharon, and the overall team won-lost record during his tenure has been a spectacular 54-4.

As a freshman Hechemy went undefeated during the regular season, and finished 19-1 overall with the lone loss to a Lynnfield player in the state tournament.

As a sophomore he won all but two matches, finishing 20-2 with the only setbacks to MVC rival Scott Mahoney of Methuen and to Jim Katz of Sharon High.

This spring the only league player extending Hechemy to three sets was Wilmington No. 1 Steve Cutone, although Jeff came back to sweep him in their rematch.

At the Eastern Mass. Individuals two weekends ago, Hechemy advanced to the quarterfinals with four victories. Two of his early-round victims were Derek Dutton of Pentucket Regional (6-2, 6-2) and Scott Abercrombie of Melrose (6-2, 6-3).

In the quarters he swept aside Dave Weiss of Lincoln-Sudbury, 7-5, 6-2, and then showed some intestinal fortitude in the semis with a come-from-behind 6-2, 4-6, 7-5 triumph over Burlington High No. 1 Kevin Connolly.

"Jeff was down 4-1 and 5-3 in the third set but came back to win the last four games," said Wartman.

That paired him with Lubos Kozek in the final, Hechemy seeded No. 2 at the start of the tourney and Kozek No. 1.

Kozek, a senior who bypassed the Lexington High team last spring to play tournament tennis and be tutored by a teaching pro, beat Hechemy 7-5, 6-0.

Hechemy, whose older sister Jennifer was a member of the Andover girls' team and graduated last June, is committed year-round to tennis.

He plays and practices alot at Old Colony in the winter, and during the summer hits the NELTA (New England Lawn Tennis Association) circuit where he's ranked in the Top 20 in the 18-and-under age-group division.

It will be interesting to see what Jeff, who stands about 5-9 and weighs approximately 155 pounds, does next spring as a senior.

A state individual championship is a possibility.

Around the Town

Sean Ryan was the starting point-guard for the Middlesex team in the recent AAU Junior Olympic Basketball Tournament at Medway High.

Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ryan, 4 Cindy Lane, played in the 15-and-under age-group division.

The Middlesex team, a first-year entry in the tournament, lost three close decisions to Newton Yellow Cab, the Boston

Shootout team and the Vermont state team.

Newton Yellow Cab won the division title and will next play in the National AAU Tournament in Arkansas.

Sean's father Charlie, meanwhile, has been "vacationing" in Florida recently.

The Lowell High varsity basketball coach and his team were rewarded with the trip for their performance this past season, when Lowell won the Eastern Mass. Division 1 North Tournament title, reached the state Division 1 semifinals, and finished 17-6 overall.

A "trip fund" was established by several city officials, who raised close to $14,000 in two months to finance the excursion.

Brent Raftery, who played on Andover High's varsity hockey team as an underclassman this past winter, finished second in the Hockey North Junior-Senior Division individual scoring race.

Hockey North is a spring league at Saugus Hockeytown-USA that runs for seven weeks in April and May.

"I believe Jeff went further than any other Andover player ever has in the individual tournament. He wins with excellent groundstrokes and a great forehand. He's a very steady player who doesn't make mistakes. He serves well and hits the ball hard."

Warriors Advance In Tourney As Part Of Best Season Ever

By Rick Harrison

The most successful team in the history of the Andover High baseball program won its 15th and 16th games of the season last weekend, advancing to the Eastern Mass. Division 1 North Tournament "Final Four" with a 7-2 victory over Chelmsford and 9-8 triumph over top-seeded Revere.

The opening round victory over Chelmsford is believed to be Andover's first ever in the tournament, coach Dave Bettencourt stating he had researched that claim back through 40 years of Punchard and AHS baseball records.

The coach then used the information as a strong motivational tool to help psyche his players for the tourney opener.

The hang-tough decision over Revere, which saw Andover out-hit 16-9 and outslugged (Revere two homers, two doubles), propelled the Golden Warriors into yesterday's semifinal round.

Andover (16-6 overall) is next scheduled to face Newton South today at 4 p.m. at Mark Devlin Field in Lawrence, and if AHS wins that game it will face the survivor of the other semifinal this Saturday in the Division 1 North championship game.

Should the Golden Warriors play and win Saturday they would advance to the four-team State Tournament, where two more victories would give them a first-ever state championship.

Andover was also the only Merrimack Valley Conference Large School qualifier to win in the tourney, Billerica bowing 9-2 to Waltham and Lawrence losing 10-1 to Melrose in first rounders.

Small Schoolers Dracut and Tewksbury were Division 2 North winners, Dracut beating both North Andover (3-2, 12 innings) and top seed East Boston (8-4) while Tewksbury drilled Greater-Lowell Regional (11-1). Methuen bowed out with a 7-2 loss to Revere.

Tewksbury then faced Dracut in the quarterfinals and beat the Middies, 6-2.

Andover, 7-2

The bottom third of the Golden Warriors' batting order rose to the top in the tourney opener against Chelmsford, as senior outfielder Rick Lafond, junior outfielder-pitcher John Russell and junior third baseman Steve Howes combined for a triple, double, three singles and four RBI.

"It's nice to receive help like that from unexpected sources," said Bettencourt with a smile. "Those guys definitely picked up the offensive slack today."

Actually the rest of the order wasn't too shabby either, eight different players contributing at least one safety to the 12-hit attack that brought back memories of Andover's torrid team batting assaults during the first half of the regular season.

"I was definitely pleased with the overall performance," said Bettencourt. "We had timely hitting and excellent defense from Scotty Wallace (second base), Keith Abernathy (shortstop), Steve Howes (third base) and Tommy Murray (catcher)."

Steve Surette, who lifted his overall record this spring to 8-2 and his career mark at AHS to 13-5, went the nine-inning distance and effectively scattered 10 hits.

The junior righthander struck out seven, walked only two and threw 125 pitches.

"He's a battler," offered Chelmsford coach Bill Schoenfeld. "We hit the ball pretty hard, but he was tough when he had to be. We couldn't get the timely hits, and they made some solid defensive plays behind him."

Chelmsford had at least one hit in every inning, but Surette helped himself tremendously by retiring the first batter he faced in each of the last seven frames.

After the second stanza, when the Lions chalked up their second and final run, Bill Avery was the only Chelmsford runner to advance beyond first base when he clouted a two-out triple down the rightfield line in the fifth.

"Steve has to be tired," said Bettencourt. "If you ask him he won't admit it, but pitching three games in eight days (two weeks ago) had to take something out of him. He's thrown a lot of pitches the last 2-3 weeks.

"Today he started off slowly, but definitely threw the ball harder as the game went along," noted the AHS coach. "Chelmsford hits the ball as well as any team in the league, and coming into this game we felt they were the hottest club in the Merrimack Valley Conference."

The Lions had won seven of their previous eight following a 6-6 start, leaving the 1987 MVC Large School champs at 13-7 overall.

One of those victories was a come-from-behind 4-3 triumph over Andover and Surette, decided on a dramatic three-run homer in the bottom of the eighth inning, and that must have made this victory doubly sweet for the Golden Warriors' ace pitcher.

Junior righty Tom Ray, who finished with a 7-2 record after tying Surette for the most victories by an MVC pitcher during the regular season, went the distance for Chelmsford. He yielded 12 hits, walked five and struck out one.

"He's not going to overpower anyone," said coach Schoenfeld. "The secret to Tom's success is that he keeps the ball low, although today he got a few pitches up and it hurt him."

The Lions jumped ahead 1-0 in the top of the first when Derek Robinson laced a leadoff single to rightfield, moved up on Avery's sacrifice bunt, took third when Rob Lizine blasted a line-drive single off first baseman Chris Concerni's glove, and scored when pesky Jim Moulton lofted a sacrifice fly to rightfield.

Andover came right back in the home half, however, tying it 1-1 as leadoff batter Matt Pothier walked, stole second, took third on a passed ball and crossed on Co-Capt. Scott Wallace's single to leftfield.

The Golden Warriors inched ahead 2-1 in the second. Concerni slapped a single, Rick Lafond and John Russell drew consecutive one-out walks to load the bases, and Steve Howes hoisted a sacrifice fly to rightfield.

Lafond and Russell tagged and advanced on the flyball as well, but were left stranded at second and third when the next batter popped out.

Chelmsford's last gasp, as it turned out, came in the third as Robinson drew a one-out walk, moved ahead on Avery's infield out and crossed on Lizine's basehit.

After that Surette was in control, permitting a bunch of singles but nothing damaging.

"Surette is a competitor," said Bettencourt. "Some guys can smell the goalline and go for it. He's one of those."

AHS, meanwhile, took the lead for good in the fourth when Lafond laid down a two-out bunt single, stole second and trotted home on John Russell's RBI double to centerfield. Russell subsequently stole third but went no further.

In the fifth, with two down following the Lions' second double-play of the afternoon, Co-Capt. Tom Murray singled, stole second and scored on Mike Moriarty's single. Moriarty then stole second and crossed on Concemi's basehit to make it 5-2.

Russell walked with one out in the sixth and came all the way around on Howes' long double.

Lafond, who along with Moriarty was being 'scouted' by University of Lowell coach Jim Stone, hammered a 300-foot triple in the eighth and scored the final run on Russell's single.

Russell (2-for-2), Lafond (2-for-3), Moriarty (2-for-4) and Concemi (2-for-4) sparked the attack.

Defensively, Murray gunned down two would-be basestealers, Wallace had two putouts and five assists, and Abernathy ended the game by initiating a 6-3 doubleplay as the Warriors played extremely-sharp errorless ball.

The rival coaches differed in their thoughts on playing each other for the third time this spring.

"This is the way it should have ended for one of us," said Schoenfeld. "We had battled and scrapped through two other one-run games (9-8 and 4-3 split), and our kids were excited to play Andover a third time. I have no complaints."

"I would have preferred a different opponent," offered Bettencourt. "Nothing against Chelmsford at all, but you get more of a tournament feeling if you're playing someone new. I believe Arlington and Chelmsford qualified with the same record, and it would have been nice to get a shot at Arlington."

Andover, 9-8

Winning pitcher John Russell (5-3), who worked the first 6-1/3 innings before giving way to Steve Surette, singled home Rick Lafond with the deciding run in the top of the ninth as the Golden Warriors escaped Revere unscathed last Monday evening.

"The game took about four hours to play," said Bettencourt, "and I've never been more mentally or physically drained after a ballgame."

"I went against my coaching philosophy by using Steve Surette, but he gave us another gutsy performance. John Russell didn't pitch badly, either. He basically made just two mistakes, and they hit both for a two-run and three-run homer."

"We knew Revere was a good hitting team, and when you look at the stats you wonder how we got out of there with the victory," admitted Bettencourt.

"But we told the kids on the way over if they didn't make mistakes we had a real good shot. We ended up committing only one error, and that was the difference in the game."

Both Russell and Surette were bailed out of tough situations by solid defensive support, none more crucial than third baseman Steve Howes' outstanding play to end the game.

In the bottom of the ninth, with one run in, two out and runners at first and second, Howes made a lunging stop of a hard smash by Peter Hinojosa. Howes knocked the ball down and tagged third for the forceout to finally end it.

Other defensive standouts were first baseman Chris Concemi, who suffered a twisted knee late in the contest, rock-steady second baseman Scott Wallace and catcher Tom Murray.

"Revere's catcher was very highly-touted," said Bettencourt. "But we stole 10 bases in 10 attempts, while Murray threw out three of four."

Andover bounced out to a 3-0 lead in the top of the first. DH Matt Pothier, who scored three runs, walked and promptly stole second base. Murray drew a one-out walk and worked a double steal with Pothier. Mike Moriarty slapped a two-run single, stole second, and raced across on junior shortstop Keith Abernathy's single.

Revere, which finished its season 18-4 and won the Greater-Boston League title, came back with two runs against Russell in the bottom of the first. Hinojosa led with a single and Emilio Leone belted a two-run homer.

The Golden Warriors added a run in the second as Pothier reached on a two-out error, stole his third base and scooted home on Wallace's basehit.

AHS made it 6-2 with a pair in the fourth. Howes rapped the first of two Warrior doubles (seven singles), Wallace walked, and both scored on a subsequent throwing error.

Russell cruised into the bottom of the fifth with relative ease, but Luis Olivieri closed the Patriots' gap to 6-5 very quickly when he hammered a three-run homer.

Andover got one back in the sixth after Pothier walked, stole his fourth base and scored on Murray's single.

In the seventh Abernathy was hit in the helmet by a pitch, Lafond bunted him to second, he advanced to third on a wild pitch, and Russell dropped a perfect suicide squeeze bunt.

Russell exited in the bottom of the seventh, Surette entering with one run home (8-6 score), the bases loaded and just one out. The first pitch he threw ended the threat, producing a crisp 6-4-3 Abernathy-Wallace-Concemi doubleplay.

Revere nicked Surette for a run in the bottom of the eighth, making it 8-7, but in the ninth Lafond walked, stole second and third base, and raced across on Russell's clutch single.

That set the stage for the seat-squirming bottom of the ninth. Mario Luiso singled and moved to second on an error. Surette fanned the next batter, but Mike McGrath spiked an RBI single to make it 9-8.

A fielder's choice erased McGrath, but Kevin Bureau's single to leftfield put runners at first and second with two down. Howes followed with his game-saving dive at third base.

Russell surrendered 11 hits, walked three and struck out eight in his stint. Surette, earning his first save, yielded five hits, walked none and fanned two.

Murray and Howes doubled and singled for the Warriors, Moriarty added two hits, and other safeties were by Wallace, Russell and Abernathy.

Leone paced Revere with 4-for-5, Luiso and Mark Bright contributed three hits apiece, and Hinojosa had two singles.

Selected For All-star Game

By Rick Harrison

Two outstanding Andover High football players, graduating seniors and multi-sport stars Mike Marinaro and John Perry, will participate in the 10th annual Shriners' Football Classic on Friday night, June 17, at Boston College Alumni Stadium.

Marinaro and Perry, who will attend Boston College and the University of New Hampshire respectively on full football scholarships, are on the North team roster and will be among 99 all-star athletes from 66 central and Eastern Massachusetts communities who will play in the game.

The yearly grid contest is a major fundraiser to help support the 22 Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children across North America.

Among the current professional players who competed in past Shriners' Classics are New England Patriots' quarterback Doug Flutie, linebacker Steve DeOssie (Dallas), Mark MacDonald (Minnesota) and running back Steve Strachan (LA Raiders).

Most were Boston College predecessors to Marinaro.

Marinaro, listed as a 6-4, 255-pound lineman, also starred as a center in basketball and member of the Andover High spring track team.

Perry, a 5-11, 185-pound wide receiver, was a high-scoring guard in basketball and state-class long jumper in track.

Both Marinaro, who has put on approximately 50 pounds over the past two years, and Perry have a chance to start as freshmen at BC and UNH.

"Mike is a real classy kid and a hard worker," said Andover High varsity hoop coach Tom Ryser. "He has that (Larry) Bird-type work ethic."

"Many times I could see the day after a game he was hurting, but he never begged off (in practice). He'd pick himself up and push even harder. He developed himself into a solid basketball player, with good inside moves, and I'm sure the same qualities for success applied in football."

"He was a big-game player, something that transcends any one sport and carries over to all athletics," said Ryser. "He had his best efforts for us in the tournament games against Peabody and Lowell."

Marinaro scored 256 points this past basketball season, averaging 11.1 and 10.0 rebounds per contest. In the tournament those figures jumped to 21.0 points and 14.1 rebounds per contest.

"Mike was often called up to guard guys bigger, quicker and with better jumping ability," said Ryser. "But I can't think of many that outplayed him."

"I believe he has the proper mentality to end up in the NFL one day if he gets the right breaks."

The Shriners' Game has become a traditional summertime showcase, with a parade of more than 500 Shriners in full regalia opening the night's festivities at 6 p.m.

The kickoff is scheduled for 7 o'clock.

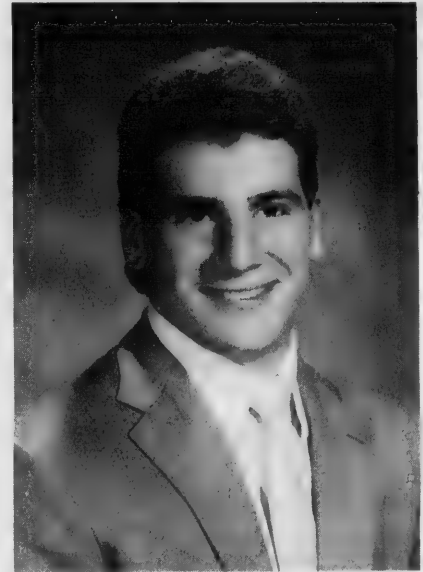

The 22 Shriners' Hospitals are known throughout the world for their free, quality hospital and medical care for both crippled and burned children. None of the hospitals accepts payment from the patients' family or insurance company, nor do they accept grants from the government.

All funds are raised from free-will donations and events such as the Football Classic.

Other Merrimack Valley Conference players selected for the North squad include Central Catholic defensive back Mike Cassano, Lowell High lineman Eric Nelson, Billerica High linebacker/running back Joe Napoli, and from Chelmsford's Eastern Mass. Division 2 Super Bowl champs the triumvirate of running back Kyle Cripps, tight end Peter Jackson and tackle Eric Frobose.

Tickets are $4.00 at the gate, $3.00 in advance and $2.00 for blocks of 50 or more.

Further information may be obtained by calling Harold Foley (665-6466), while ticket info is available at 757-4202.

Tickets may also be purchased through the mail by sending a check or money order ($3.00 per ticket) to: "Shriners' Football, Ticket Office, P.O. Box H, Wilmington, Ma. 01887."

Varsity Tennis Teams Open Tournament Play

The Andover High boys' and girls' varsity tennis teams opened play in the Eastern Mass. Division 2 North Tournament this past Tuesday, the girls battling North Reading and the boys hosting Hamilton-Wenham in first round action of the single-elimination tourney.

The Merrimack Valley Conference champion Golden Warrior girls entered undefeated at 16-0 overall, while the boys finished as co-champs with a 15-1 overall mark.

There were also several AHS players selected to the MVC All-Star teams.

Junior No. 1 Jeff Hechemy was named the league's Most Valuable Player in the boys' division, and joining him as first-team Stars are freshman Chris Chiang (second singles), senior Steve Napolitano (third singles) and the No. 2 doubles team of juniors Peter Kannam and Scott Clementi.

All were undefeated in league play, Hechemy at 14-0, Chiang 11-0, Napolitano 10-0 and the doubles' tandem at 10-0.

On the girls' side, sophomore Cate Doherty (7-2 record) and the doubles' team of freshman Karen Lottatore and sophomore Andrea Georgian (7-0) were first-team All-Stars.

Senior Liz Jurek (9-0) was selected for honorable mention status.

Audi's Trans-Am Hopes Begin In Long Beach

Members of the media were given a special preview of Audi's new 200 Turbo Quattro/Trans-Am vehicles during a series of final tests at Road Atlanta late last month.

The tests preceded the Audi team's debut in the 1988 Sports Car Club of America (SCAA) Trans-Am series, which opened April 17 in Long Beach, Calif. Full details of the event will be detailed in the May Spirit.

The new Audi 200 Turbo Quattro/Trans-Am vehicles represent a departure from the usual race car technology in that they employ Audi's unique all-wheel drive system featuring TORSEN (a registered trademark of Gleason Power Systems Division, Gleason Corp.) lock and optional viscous coupling differentials. The system will give drivers Hurley Haywood, Hans Stuck and Walter Roehrl control over the 500-plus horsepower output from the Quattros' five-cylinder turbocharged engine.

Joseph Hoppen, Audi special vehicles manager, expressed much optimism about the Audi team's chances in its inaugural Trans-Am year.

"Even though the Trans-Am represents one of the most difficult arenas in which to succeed because of the high level of technology and competition, I feel that Audi will be a winner," he noted.

Hoppen said Audi has clearly demonstrated through its past successes in world and national championship rallying, as well as in Pikes Peak and Showroom Stock racing, the superiority of its advanced engineering package.

"To my knowledge, this is the first time that an all-wheel-drive vehicle will compete on a regular basis in a series of this type," Hoppen said. "I think that when you combine Audi's technology with the skills of our drivers—all of them are champions in their own right—and the preparation skills of Bob Tullius' Group 44 team, Audi will be a winner."

Group 44, whose association with Audi was announced at a January Daytona Beach press conference, fits in well with the championship mold of the Audi team, having won two Trans-Am titles as well as some 14 SCAA national championships.

Hoppen said that the lineup for the Group 44-Audi organization is memorable for its successful record.

Haywood is the winner of countless individual events as well as former International Motor Sports Association (IMSA) Camel GT titlist and the first man to finish at the head of both the Daytona 24-Hour and Le Mans 24-Hour races in the same season.

Stuck is the reigning Le Mans 24-Hour champion and a two-time world endurance champion. He also won Le Mans in 1986. Ironically, his father, Hans, Sr., drove for Audi 50 years ago, the last time that Audi participated in road racing prior to this season.

Roehrl holds a unique place in motorsports as perhaps the finest rally driver of all time. A four-time winner at Monte Carlo (in four different makes of cars) and twice World Rally champion, Roehrl stunned the American racing scene last year when he shattered the Pikes Peak Auto Hill Climb overall record by more than 20 seconds in his Sport Quattro S1. Bobby Unser set the previous record in an Audi in 1986.

The car is available at A.E. Park Corp., 222 Lowell St., Lawrence.

"If he got there first, he did what he could until the others came," Hayes said. Firefighting methods have changed much since.

Three professional firefighters now work the Ballardvale station. The two-horsepower fire wagon has been replaced by a 1980 Mack firepumper.

"I think a lot of people would like to see a new station down there," said Hayes. "But that's not possible at this time."

By January of 1894 the Punchard Alumni association, according to its secretary, had "lived through many a cold water bath of adverse criticism." Next Monday evening the association will meet in the Memorial auditorium to decide just how it will combat the present cold water bath, not of adverse criticism but alumni apathy.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Dorothy M. Winn

Andover residents should have received their copy of the Department of Community Services Summer Program booklet by now. The booklet is full of classes, activities and special events. Be sure to check the offerings under the Elder Affairs division. You won't want to miss the special activities planned this summer. Registration for summer classes at the senior center begins Monday, June 13, at 10 a.m.

Andover residents age 60 and older may pick up surplus foods daily from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. while supplies last.

Tickets for the annual fun celebration of Christmas in July, to be held July 25, go on sale July 1. The cost is $2.50 and includes a Christmas dinner with all the trimmings, prizes, entertainment and visitors from the North Pole.

Armchair travellers will want to mark June 13 on their calendar as the date the Council on Aging begins a summer travel series. Every Monday throughout the summer you can enjoy travel to exotic places in the airconditioned comfort of the senior center. The destination for Monday, June 13, is Greece and the "trip" starts at 1 p.m.

The featured film at the senior center on Thursday, June 16, will be "Cocoon" at 1 p.m. and again on Friday at 10 a.m. This summer film program is free to Andover seniors and their guests age 21 or older.

Lunches are served at the senior center Monday through Friday at a cost of only 50 cents. All Andover residents age 60 and older are eligible to attend the Senior Citizen Lunch Program. Reservations must be made by calling 470-3830 before 4 p.m. of the business day preceding the lunch you plan to attend.

Transportation to lunches, films and other activities is available through the Andover Weebus for only 35 cents each way. Transportation is available throughout the Greater Lawrence area to Andover seniors. The cost for trips to North Andover, Lawrence and Methuen cost $1.50 each way. The Weebus is available Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Call 975-2747 for reservations at least 24 hours in advance.

The Council on Aging will celebrate Flag Day on Tuesday, June 14, by distributing American flags to the first 100 people to come to the senior center that day.

Quilters

The Merrimack Valley Quilters will hold a meeting on Thursday, June 16, at the New England Quilt Museum in Lowell at 7 p.m. The program will consist of slides highlighting the MVQ quilt show that was held in May. Members are asked to bring "finger foods" and wine.

A.E. PARK CORP. IS INTRODUCING ONE OF THE BEST OWNERSHIP PACKAGES IN THE WORLD.

THE AUDI ASSURANCE PROGRAM.

Consider the three parts of this important Program.

Audi has a 3 year/50,000 mile limited warranty against defects in virtually every component except tires which are covered by the tire manufacturer, plus a 6 year unlimited mileage corrosion protection limited warranty on the 100% galvanized steel bodies.

The Program also provides reimbursement up to specified limits for many travel related expenses which may occur should you need the roadside services provided by the United States Auto Club, Motoring Division, Inc. Services such as towing, transportation, lodging or car rental.

And we're introducing the Audi Value Assurance Program* which reaffirms Audi's confidence that resale values at trade-in will be comparable to specified European competition Mercedes-Benz, BMW and Volvo models or Audi will pay the difference.

Now, what do you need to do to get this remarkable ownership package? Buy a new 1988 Audi. And that's the most attractive benefit of all.

Restrictions apply. Come in for full Program and warranty details and a test drive. *Excludes leases.

Axelrod

Project plans showed a road coming over wetlands from Greenwood Road, but Whitney pointed out that Axelrod also owns land below the site on Lowell Street that could access the development without crossing wetlands. Representatives from John Crowe Associates, the project architect, have said the Lowell Street property was not penciled in because of traffic concerns.

However, Whitney wrote that "the board believes that if petitioners own land which has not been included in the premises but which would afford a reasonable access to the buildable area without crossing wetlands (then) petitioners have not demonstrated the existence of a hardship sufficient to support the grant of a variance."

Before the Lowell Street access could be eliminated as an alternative, the board would need to see evidence presented proving traffic and safety problems, Whitney said.

The other variances and one special permit requested by Axelrod were denied without prejudice by the board because they are related only to the project which is no longer viable and therefore they exist in a vacuum," he wrote.

The board did approve a special permit that will allow the golf course to continue operation.

Under a bylaw approved when Axelrod owned both the golf course and the Sheraton, an "outdoor recreation facility" must occupy at least 50 acres.

When Axelrod sold the hotel several years ago, the golf course fell short of the 50-acre requirement, a failing that went unnoticed until his condominium project was scrutinized.

However, the board found that "the continued use of the land involved as a golf course will not be unreasonably detrimental to the established or future character of the neighborhood and town."

Collaborative Plans Future

By Julie M. Barry

The Greater Lawrence Educational Collaborative, a 12-year-old organization that provides special needs and social programs to local schools, took a look at its past and at its future at its annual meeting.

The GLEC board of directors, superintendents and school committee members of participating towns attended the meeting to review the past year's annual report and to look at the future direction of the organization.

Malchan Stanley, executive director of GLEC, gave a brief overview of the organization and the past year's activities.

GLEC began 12 years ago in response to Chapter 766, which relates to special needs programs. Regional towns—Andover, North Andover, Boxford, Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School district, Haverhill, Lawrence, Methuen, Middleton and Topsfield—needed a cost-effective way to provide special education programs to students. "GLEC has provided and continues to provide cost-effective special education programs," Stanley said.

The collaborative has developed over one dozen special education programs affecting over 330 students, Stanley said.

By 1985, he said, the special education programs were solidified. At this time, GLEC began to diversify and collaborate on new projects, including regular education programs, staff development and cooperative purchasing.

The annual report compared the tuition rate of the collaborative versus comparable public/private programs. GLEC saved its member towns 59 percent in tuition rates, for a total of $1.1 million. The savings for Andover was $192,228.

Cooperative purchasing was another area of savings, according to Stanley. This includes fuel, paper products, athletic insurance and asbestos testing. He said collaboration has enabled the districts to save about $87,000.

Collaborative activities have expanded to include regular education programs.

The annual report stated that last year over 1500 regular education students were involved in collaborative programs designed to strengthen the social and cultural bonds between the communities.

Some of last year's activities included academic bowls, cross-cultural appreciation, music festivals, athletic events and leadership training.

GLEC has been involved in staff development and plans to continue programs such as lectures and workshops. October 1988 and March 1989 have been designated as professional development months, according to Stanley. He said the programs will utilize the expertise of professionals within GLEC. Teachers will share ideas with each other, Stanley said.

Kenneth Seifert, board chairman and Andover school superintendent, said he thinks GLEC is "the finest collaboration in the commonwealth."

He noted situations that would be facing educators down the road. A future shortage of teachers, changes in teacher training requirements, transportation problems and curriculum revisions are all future issues that educators will have to contend with, according to Seifert.

Rather than going our separate ways, I urge all citizens to join hands and knock down the barriers that attempt to divide us neatly into geographic units and support a project that pins its future on the leadership of adults in our communities who first must be willing to dream of a better tomorrow. To do any less would be a tragedy that benefits no one and hurts tomorrow's leaders that we are educating today.

Spare The Rhetoric

To the Editor Of the TOWNSMAN:

It would seem to me that people who attend the June 20 special town meeting will be there because they have read all the information concerning the proposed collaborative school. How nice it would be if we could be spared long hours of pro and con rhetoric. Why not simply set up a few polling booths and let us vote quickly and privately? My bet is that many more Andoverites would vote their convictions on June 20 if they knew they didn't have to endure a long summer's evening of town meeting.

Appreciative

To Dorothy M. Winn, Andover Council On Aging:

I would like to thank you on behalf of my whole family for everything you did to make the last two years of my mother's life happy ones for her. Your advice and assistance in caring for her were invaluable to all of us.

The Senior Day Care Program that you are running so well, Dot, should become a model for all. From the very first time Kathy Urquhart spoke with mother, she had captured her heart. Your choice of people to assist in the program shows such insight as to the needs of the elderly. From the moment I entered day care with my mother, the sensitivity, love and happy atmosphere assured me that she was in the hands of very special people. And well she knew it! She loved being there.

We will be ever grateful to you, Dot, and to all those kind people you so wisely chose to care for our mother and her friends at day care.

We wish you continued success in this most important work.

FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

FEDERAL INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION

Proposed Flood Elevation Determinations

AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency

ACTION: Proposed rule.

SUMMARY:

Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed modified base (100-year) flood elevations shown on your community's preliminary Revised Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM). These base (100-year) flood elevations are the basis for the floodplain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect in order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP). The proposed base flood elevations modify the base flood elevations shown on your community's presently effective FIRM.

DATES:

The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in the community.

ADDRESSES:

Preliminary FIRMs showing the proposed modified base flood elevations and their delineation are available for review at the Engineering Department, Town Offices, Andover, Massachusetts.

Send comments to:

The Honorable William Downes

Chairman of the Town of Andover

Board of Selectmen

Essex County

Town Offices

Andover, Massachusetts, 01810

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

John L. Matticks

Chief, Risk Studies Division

Federal Insurance Administration

Federal Emergency Management Agency

Washington, DC 20472

(202) 646-2767

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Federal Emergency Management Agency gives notice of the proposed determinations of modified base (100-year) flood elevations, in accordance with Section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added Section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (pub. L. 90-448)), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 44 CFR 67.4(a).

These elevations, together with the floodplain management measures required by Section 60.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required. They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their floodplain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State, or regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents and for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and their contents.

Pursuant to the provisions of 5 USC 605(b), the Administrator, to whom authority has been delegated by the Director, Federal Emergency Management Agency, hereby certifies that the proposed flood elevation determinations, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. A flood elevation determination under Section 1363 forms the basis for new local ordinances, which, if adopted by a local community, will govern future construction within the floodplain area. The elevation determinations, however, impose no restriction unless and until the local community voluntarily adopts floodplain ordinances in accord with these elevations. Even if ordinances are adopted in compliance with Federal standards, the elevations prescribe how high to build the floodplain and do not proscribe development. Thus, this action only forms the basis for future local actions. It imposes no new requirement; of itself it has no economic impact.

Proposed base flood elevations along flood sources studied in detail are shown on the Preliminary FIRM. Lessees and owners of real property in the Town of Andover, Essex County, Massachusetts, are encouraged to review these maps and related materials at the address cited above. The flood sources studied in detail are:

Source of Flooding	*Elevation in Feet (NGVD)	Existing Modified
Merriamck River	49 - 50	56 - 59
Shawsheen River	34 - 35	63 - 64
Fish Brook	None - 55	None - 53

COLOR CAN AFFECT SALE

Color can influence how large your home looks, how well cared for it seems and how easy it may be for a buyer to visualize him - or herself owning it. From the smallest application of color to brightening a bathroom to a major project like exterior painting, improvements involving color will yield an exceptional return. Some pointers:

Light colors make areas seem more expansive, dark colors make spaces close in.

Add bold colors through accent features such as fabrics, flowers and trim, but keep background neutral.

Strong personal colors make it more difficult for the buyer to visualize the home as his or her own. Stick with neutral colors such as whites, beiges and soft pastels and use special caution when selecting wallpaper. Choose premium quality paint because the difference in results will far exceed the difference in cost.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

REAL ESTATE GUIDELINES

By Beverly Kimball, G.R.I. & C.R.B.
 Realty U.S.A.
 Schruender Real Estate

WHEN YOU HAVE ANOTHER HOME TO SELL

You've decided it's time to move, but you're afraid to place your present home on the market until you've found a new one and completed negotiations for its purchase. At the same time, however, you find that most sellers are reluctant to finalize offers from buyers who must include contingencies calling for the sale of a current residence before settling on the new one.

If you're caught in this dilemma, the first step out of it is to contact a professional Realtor. He or she can list your home, showing you how it can be done without the risk of putting your family out on the street. Once you have a firm contract from a qualified buyer, you will become much more attractive to sellers. When you do find the perfect home, you greatly increase your chances of being able to buy it.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling a home, talk to the professionals at Realty USA Schruender Real Estate. Come by our offices at 73 Chickering Road, North Andover or call us at 685-5000.

Tokyo Pharmaceutical Firm To Locate In Andover

Eisai Co., Ltd, Japan's fifth largest pharmaceutical company, headquartered in Tokyo, announces the establishment of a wholly owned subsidiary research laboratory, Eisai Research Institute of Boston, Inc., to be located in Andover.

The institute will be staffed initially with American senior scientists. Overall employment will grow to approximately 35 persons. Prof. Yoshito Kishi of Harvard University, an internationally renowned organic chemist, has agreed to take on the role of chairman of the scientific advisory board.

Eisai, which presently has 1987 gross sales of more than 1.3 billion dollars and employs some 3,700 persons, is conducting research and development at its Tsukuba Research Laboratories located some 50 miles northeast of Tokyo. The company plans to identify breakthrough compounds in its Andover facility by means of concepts and approaches different from those followed in Japan. Further development of these compounds toward medical applications will be conducted in Japan.

The establishment of this research institute is part of Eisai's plan to continue its growth as a R&D based international pharmaceutical company. It expects that the institute will play an important role in the implementation of worldwide business development strategy.

Building construction for the institute is scheduled to start in July with expected completion in August 1989. During this period research will be conducted at a temporary facility in Lexington. The Andover facility, which will be constructed in accordance with the most modern technology, will contain some 47,000 square feet and occupy some 6.5 acres.

Chamber Salutes AHS Students

The Andover Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors congratulated the members of the Andover High School Academic Olympic team for their outstanding performance in statewide competition.

The Andover chamber, an ancillary arm of the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce, invited the students to its board meeting on Thursday, June 2, to receive awards from the chamber provided by Hewlett Packard. On hand to receive the accolades were John Hess, a gold, silver and bronze medal winner; David Friedenson, gold medalist; David Schwind, gold medalist; Kathleen Jayes, gold medalist; Karen Del Sarto, gold medalist; Johanna Holm, silver medalist; Holly Shanaman, bronze medalist; and Brian Worcester, team alternate. Jose Guerra, a medal winner, could not be present, but Ruby Easton, the team's coach and teacher at the high school, accepted his award for him.

Frank Orlandella of Hewlett Packard and member of the Andover Chamber Board of Directors presented each team member with a Hewlett Packard scientific or business calculator. Andrew Caffrey, Jr., chair of the chamber, offered the board's congratulations for their outstanding performance.

Easton explained that the team placed fourth in the statewide overall competition, winning 11 medals, and finished first statewide in the SuperQuiz portion of the Academic Olympics. She said that was the best showing Andover High School has achieved in its years of participating in this multi-discipline test of academic knowledge and ability. Math, science, fine arts, economics and social studies are among the subjects in which students must compete.

Correction

In the May 26 edition of The TOWNSMAN, the pulling of a town meeting article regarding the proposed Lawrence/Andover Collaborative School from April's Town Meeting was attributed to the Citizens for Excellence in Education.

In actuality, the Andover School Board decided to take the article from the meeting agenda.
